Americans in Egypt, 1770-1915 Cassandra Vivian,2012-08-29 The voices of Americans have long been absent from studies of modern Egypt Most scholars assume that Americans were either not in Egypt in significant numbers during the nineteenth century or had little of importance to say This volume shows that neither was the case by introducing and relating the experiences and attitudes of 15 American personalities who worked lived or traveled in Egypt from the 1770s to the commencement of World War I Often in their own words explorers consuls tourists soldiers missionaries artists scientists and scholars offer a rare American perspective on everyday Egyptian life and provide a new perspective on many historically significant events The stories of these individuals and their sojourns not only recount the culture and history of Egypt but also convey the domination of the country by European powers and the support for Egypt by a young American nation

History of a Young Man Gustave Flaubert, 2016-01-14 Gustave Flaubert was one of the 19th century's most famous authors. A French novelist, Flaubert led the way for the Realism literary movement in that country at a time that it was sweeping across Europe and the United States and works like Madame Bovary are still wildly popular today. Flaubert Mme Bovary Re C115 Pa Gustave. Flaubert, 1989-04 The text of this Norton Critical Edition is based on Eleanor Marx Aveling's celebrated translation revised by Paul de Man. The Works of Gustave Flaubert Gustave Flaubert, 2015-10-21 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it. Short Fiction Gustave Flaubert, 2019-03-17 Gustave Flaubert was an influential novelist who had both the characteristics of a romanticist and a realist. The short stories in this collection put that dichotomy on display. Flaubert wrote the first story, The Dance of Death, when he was only 17 years old. It is written in a play format though sometimes referred to as a prose poem and features a conversation between Death, Satan, and Nero. The Legend of Saint Julian the Hospitaller is a story about Julian the Hospitaller, a man who shares some similarities with Oedipus. A Simple Soul tells the story of a servant girl named Felicit and lastly Herodias retells the beheading of St. John the Baptist.

Sentimental Education Gustave Flaubert, 2016-07-05 Considered one of the most influential novels of the 19th century, Sentimental Education describes the life of a young man, Frederic Moreau, living through the revolution of 1848 and the founding of the Second French Empire and his love for an older woman. November Gustave Flaubert, 1967 The story of an adolescence's discovery of illicit love. An intense, passionate and profoundly moving work, Flaubert's November explores the notions of desire and longing to most remarkable effect. Wrestling with the agony of loneliness, a young man withdraws deeper into himself, believing he has now reached the autumn of his life. His increasing hopelessness gives way to a yearning for romance; surely the love of a woman can deliver him the purpose he so craves. Convinced of the truth of this, he visits Marie, a kindhearted prostitute, yet Marie too is starved of love and longs for acceptance. Together they form a tragic portrait of personal anguish, heralding the extraordinary outpouring of romantic longing found in Flaubert's later novels.

finance capital and information in a new form of information capitalism that is reshaping the affective economy of our societies The capital accumulation strategies of powerful new platforms and social media are pushing people into fragmented opposing and conflictual communities where resentment is nurtured and grows The feelings of grievance and rejection generated by capitalism are redirected into attacks on migrants foreigners and others thereby deflecting their critical potential and bolstering the system that is their source It is the cunning of resentment that provides the key to understanding why despite the profusion of communication in our social media age global finance and information capital can be neither understood nor attacked as a totalizing power This brilliant analysis of the ways in which information capitalism is transforming the affective economy of our societies will be of great interest to anyone concerned with the forces that are shaping our societies today November : Roman Gustave Flaubert,1923 The Selected Works of Gustave Flaubert Gustave Flaubert,1904 The Black Book Orhan Pamuk,2014-12-16 From the Nobel Prize winning author An Istanbul lawyer s search for his missing wife leads him into a labyrinthine mystery of truth fiction and identity Galip is an Istanbul lawyer and his wife Ruya has vanished Could she be hiding out with her half brother Jelal a newspaper columnist whose fame Galip envies And if so why isn t anyone in Jelal s flat As Galip plays the part of private investigator he assumes the identity of Jelal himself wearing his clothes answering his phone calls even faking his wry columns which he passes off as the work of the missing journalist But the amateur sleuth bungles his undercover operation and with dire consequences Richly atmospheric and Rabelaisian in scope The Black Book is a glorious flight of dark fantastic invention suffused with the sights sounds and scents of Istanbul The Washington Post
