perspective on key thinkers such as Descartes Montesquieu and Diderot asserting that these figures sought to reinstate emotion against the rationalistic tendencies of the past From Descartes s last work Les Passions de l me 1649 to Baron d Holbach s System of Nature 1770 the French Enlightenment demonstrated an acute understanding of the limits of reason with crucial implications for our current postsecular and postliberal moment Sullivan also emphasizes the importance of Western constructions of Oriental religions for the history of the secular identifying a distinctively secular yet impassioned form of Orientalism that emerged in the 18th century Mahomet s racial profile in Voltaire s Le Fanatisme ou Mahomet 1741 for example functioned as a polemic device calibrated for emotional impact in line with Enlightenment efforts to generate an affective body of anti Catholic propaganda that simultaneously shored up people s sense of national belonging By exposing the Enlightenment as a nationalistic and affective movement that resorted to racist Orientalist and emotional tropes from the outset Sullivan ultimately undermines modern nationalist appeals to the Enlightenment as a mark of European distinction
