Online Talk Radio Guide:

Talk Radio Politics Jonathan Hawkins, AI, 2025-03-31 Talk Radio Politics explores the significant impact of political talk radio on civic discourse and the political landscape despite the rise of digital media. It examines how hosts craft narratives to mobilize audiences and influence elections, revealing its enduring power in shaping public opinion especially among politically engaged citizens. The book highlights the importance of understanding this medium's mechanics and rhetorical strategies in today's complex political communication environment. The book charts the evolution of talk radio, noting the impact of the repeal of the Fairness Doctrine and analyzes the core elements of the genre: the charismatic host, dedicated listener base, and emphasis on opinion. It argues that political talk radio, while often criticized for partisanship and potential misinformation, also provides space for alternative viewpoints and fosters community. Emotional appeals and framing techniques are key to the medium's persuasive power. The book progresses through detailed portraits of influential hosts, explores the psychological and sociological factors contributing to its persuasive power, and examines its real world implications in shaping political campaigns and contributing to political polarization. Utilizing content analysis, listener surveys, and interviews, it offers a balanced perspective on both the positive and negative aspects of political talk radio's influence, making it valuable for students, journalists, and anyone interested in contemporary politics.

Talk Radio, the Mainstream Press, and Public Opinion in Hong Kong Francis L. F. Lee, 2014-07-01 Talk Radio, the Mainstream Press, and Public Opinion in Hong Kong Francis L. F. Lee, 2014-07-01 Phone in programs on public and commercial radio channels have been a staple of popular Hong Kong politics since the 1990s. In the absence of a fully democratic system, they have played an influential role in channeling and mediating public opinion. This work examines the phenomenon of talk radio in Hong Kong using as its analytical framework the idea of remediation. It argues that the circulation and re-circulation of talk radio content through the mainstream media is crucial in explaining the medium's social prominence and influence. The process has not only widened the dissemination of talk radio content but also established talk radio as a channel as well as a symbol for free political expression, giving it a role in shaping serious debate not seen in many other societies. Drawing on interviews with radio personnel, analysis of radio and newspaper content, and audience surveys, Talk Radio explores the vital and influential world of Hong Kong's phone-in programs. The book will be of interest to scholars of politics, media studies, and cultural studies both in Hong Kong and overseas. This is the first comprehensive study on political radio phone-in talk shows that integrates analyses of the historical transformations of the genre, the conversational dynamics, and the remediations of citizens' voices. Exceptionally rich in data, rigorous and written in an accessible style, it contributes significantly to the fields of media studies, discourse analyses, public opinion, and political communication. Mats Ekström, Professor, Department of Journalism, Media and Communication, University of Gothenburg, Sweden. One of the most exciting developments in Hong Kong is the rise of talk radio as an interface between the political and public spheres. As this new volume demonstrates, no one is more qualified to discuss this process than Francis L. F. Lee, one of the most original
