MAHMUTOĞLU, John Morán GONZÁLEZ, 2020-10-23 The main function of traditional media is to provide timely information to the public but today traditional media cannot fulfill these expectations with regard to the fluid nature of global migration New digital media technologies such social media have arisen to fill the void narrating the lives of migrants in artistic terms that bear the traces of the major social issues of migration In this critical anthology contributors examine the intersection of migration art and media studies in order to critically analyse the impact of their confluence upon migrant and receiving communities Vildan Mahmuto lu is Associate Professor at Galatasaray University Istanbul Her research interests include migration local cultures gender and minorities Her published book chapters include A Glimmer of Hope for Mass Media in a Liberal democracy istanbulrumazinligi com and Global media Entertainment star search Her current research is about gender in diaspora John Mor n Gonz lez is the J Frank Dobie Regents Professor of American and English Literature at the University of Texas at Austin where he is also Director of the Center for Mexican American Studies He is author of two monographs and the edit or or c o editor of thr ee anthologies Contents Introduction Vildan Mahmuto lu and John Moran Gonzalez CHAPTER 1 Representation of Asylum seekers in Science Fiction films Prawns in District 9 Vildan Mahmuto lu CHAPTER 2 Border Imagery and Refugee Abjection in Contemporary Visual Art Balca Arda CHAPTER 3 Manifestations of Transfer in the Latest Post Yugoslav Playwriting and Theatre Migration Cultural Mobility and Transculturality Gabriela Abrasowicz CHAPTER 4 Migrants Identity and Body Modification in Biblical and Ancient Near Eastern Media Eric Trinka CHAPTER 5 The new diaspora and interactive media campaigns The case of Romanians migrating to the UK after Brexit Bianca Florentina Cheregi CHAPTER 6 Social Media and ICT Use by refugees Immigrants and NGOs A Literature Overview Bilgen T rkay CHAPTER 7 Reproduction of Desire Overuse of Social Media Among Syrian Refugees and Its Effects on The Future Imagination Bar ktem Media, Diaspora and Conflict Ola Ogunyemi, 2018-08-10 This edited collection argues that the connective and orientation roles ascribed to diasporic media overlook the wider roles they perform in reporting intractable conflicts in the Homeland Considering the impacts of conflict on migration in the past decades it is important to understand the capacity of diasporic media to escalate or deescalate conflicts and to serve as a source of information for their audiences in a competitive and fragmented media landscape Using an interdisciplinary perspective the chapters examine how the diasporic media projects the constructive and destructive outcomes of conflicts to their particularistic audiences within the global public sphere The result is a volume that makes an important contribution to scholarship by offering critical engagements and analyzing how the diasporic media communicates information and facilitates dialogue between conflicting parties while adding to new avenues of empirical case studies and theory development in comprehending the media coverage of conflict Migration and New Media Mirca Madianou,Daniel Miller,2013-03-01 How do parents and children care for each other when they are separated because of migration The way in which transnational families maintain long distance relationships has been revolutionised by the emergence of new media such as email instant messaging social networking sites webcam and texting A migrant mother can now call and text her left behind children several times a day peruse social networking sites and leave the webcam for 12 hours achieving a sense of co presence Drawing on a long term ethnographic study of prolonged separation between migrant mothers and their children who remain in the Philippines this book develops groundbreaking theory for understanding both new media and the nature of mediated relationships It brings together the perspectives of both the mothers and children and shows how the very nature of family relationships is changing New media understood as an emerging environment of polymedia have become integral to the way family relationships are enacted and experienced The theory of polymedia extends beyond the poignant case study and is developed as a major contribution for understanding the interconnections between digital media and interpersonal relationships The Routledge Companion to Migration, Communication, and Politics Stephen Croucher,Joao Caetano,Elsa Campbell,2018-12-07 The Routledge Companion to Migration Communication and Politics brings together academics from numerous disciplines to show the legal political communicative theoretical methodological and media implications of migration The collection makes the compelling case that migration does not occur in a vacuum rather it is driven by and reacts to various factors including the political economic and cultural worlds in which individuals live The 25 chapters reveal the complex nature of migration from various angles not only looking at how policy affects migrants but also how individuals and marginalized groups are impacted by such acts In Part I contributors examine migration law debating the role of the state in managing migration flows and investigating existing migration policy Part II offers theories and methods that integrate communication studies political science and law into the study of migration including cultural fusion theory and Gebserian theory Part III looks at how contemporary perceptions of migration and migrants intersect with media representations across media outlets worldwide Finally Part IV offers case studies that present the intricacies of migration within different cultural national and political groups Migration is the key political economic and cultural issue of our time and this companion takes the next step in the debate namely the effects of the how in addition to the how and why Researchers and students of communication politics media and law will find this an invaluable intervention Media and Migration Russell King,Nancy Wood,2013-04-15 Using examples from a range of countries this book illustrates how the media intervenes to affect the reception migrants receive and how it stimulates prospective migrants to move Migrants, Refugees, and the Media Sai Felicia

Krishna-Hensel,2018-06-27 The large scale movements of refugees and economic migrants from conflict zones to more stable societies have resulted in challenges both for new entrants and their hosts This fascinating volume brings together a collection of media analyses focused on immigration issues to examine how migration has been represented to the public Case studies exploring media coverage of migrants and refugees in Europe enable the reader to better understand the complexity of the process through a range of unique and unexplored dimensions of immigration analysis including strategic framing theory game structure analysis migration maps and routes television narratives rumour based communication and state bred campaigns The insights into the perspective of migrants the general public and policy makers provide innovative methodological and theoretical analysis on population movements which will be of interest to scholars students and policy makers working in the fields of migration studies international relations peace and security studies and social and public policy    Moving Images Krista Lymes,Tyler Morgenstern,Ian Alan Paul,2020
