Navigating Youth Hockey The Definitive Guide For Parents And Players:

Blackness Is a Gift I Can Give Her R. Renee Hess, 2026-01-13 From the founder of Black Girl Hockey Club a collection of deeply insightful and piercing essays shedding light on the history of Black excellence in hockey the future of Black joy within the sport and the ways we can all do better when it comes to recognizing and upholding systemic and institutionalized racism Growing up R Renee Hess didn't care for hockey In fact she was barely aware of it She was born and raised in Southern California hardly a hot spot for the game despite the state having three NHL teams But as Hess puts it she is a fan of being a fan and when she found herself stuck in traffic after a Pittsburgh Penguins game the streets filled with cheers something sparked within her Ever since Hess made that discovery she has been actively trying to bust the myth that Black folks don't like hockey In this collection Hess shares her hockey origin story and how she came to recognize hockey culture's lack of authentic engagement with Black communities tracing her journey to becoming a true game changer But as an academic Hess knows that her singular viewpoint can't tell the full story so she reached out to former hockey players league executives activists fans media and to the parents and youth shaping the future of the game We hear directly from players such as Sarah Nurse and Saroya Tinker from trailblazers like Bernice Carnegie and Kim Davis and from the collective of Black Girl Hockey Club scholarship awardees and their families emphasizing the importance of community and support for marginalized players The result is a hockey book truly unlike any other With essays that touch on representation and harmful stereotypes the many nuanced aspects of biracial identity being the only person of colour in the room and the virtues of a lively group chat Blackness Is a Gift I Can Give Her is a love letter to Black women everywhere as well as a scathing ode to a game that Hess loves even if it doesn't always love her back

Making Men from "The Boys" Nick Olynyk, 2015-07-07 A collection of stories from the author's career each containing a significant lesson about masculinity Making Men From The Boys will motivate young men to ask more of life and take more personal action to achieve it even as young men get more mixed signals about what it is to be a man than ever before

The Publishers Weekly, 2000 Protecting the Welfare of Individuals Operating in Organized Sport James L. Rumbold, Ashley Stirling, Louise Davis, James Newman, Andrew J.

Higham, 2025-03-26 The issue of welfare in sport has become paramount in recent years This has led various individuals who operate in sport e.g. the media professional bodies and researchers to consider aspects such as safeguarding clean sport overtraining and the wider ethics surrounding the duty of care of those involved in sport Focusing greater attention on understanding these aspects is critical given the potentially deleterious effects these aspects may have on the well-being and mental health of individuals who are subjected to wrongdoing in sport Furthermore by focusing on safeguarding clean sport overtraining and the wider ethics surrounding the duty of care and addressing wrongdoing it provides a critical opportunity to improve cultures in sport and make this a more prosocial environment for all involved Given the need to promote a prosocial environment in sport as well as the need to address wrongdoing in this context it is unsurprising that some researchers professional bodies and sport organizations have tasked themselves with the protection of individuals in this context To date work has been undertaken to explore how issues concerning the welfare of individuals are understood to consider the impact of the sporting culture on the protection or otherwise of individuals operating in sport and to develop potential interventions which may protect those involved in this context Numerous positive advances have been made to understand and improve the welfare and well being of those involved in sport as well as to raise awareness and education at the micro e g peer to peer meso e g coach athlete coach parent parent athlete exo e g professional leagues national governing bodies and macro system e g media and societal views levels Despite this these advances have not necessarily been well communicated between system levels or across international perspectives Continued efforts are therefore needed to disseminate research findings policy and practice developments in this area Therefore the goal of this research topic is to bring together a collection of papers that are concerned with protecting the welfare of individuals who may operate at varying system levels within organized sport Internet Directory for Kids and Parents Barbara Moran,1997 Educational and family entertainment options abound on the Internet users just need to know where to look The Internet Directory For Kids Parents is a friendly humorous guide that offers hundreds of ideas for online destinations that families can share together The CD ROM includes an Internet service provider a search engine and links to sites A Parent's Guide to the Best Children's Videos Kids First (Edt),2001 Looks at over 1 800 videos DVDs and software titles for children
