Memory – Papers Read at the Jewish and Christian Perspectives Conference, Utrecht 2022 ,2025-07-28 Memory Papers Read at the Jewish and Christian Perspectives Conference Utrecht 2022 connects past present and future This conference volume demonstrates the diversity of memory in the Jewish and Christian traditions Memory turns out to be a key to investigating and better understanding many aspects of Judaism and Christianity including their mutual relationship In these traditions memory is not simply about recalling events but about preserving identity culture and divine teachings The act of remembering is central to how communities pass down their religious beliefs laws and moral frameworks across generations It also plays a role in communal cohesion ensuring that the experiences of the fathers and their wisdom would not get lost but rather actively re lived and celebrated

When Religion Meets New Media Heidi Campbell,2010-04-05 This lively book focuses on how different Jewish Muslim and Christian communities engage with new media Rather than simply reject or accept new media religious communities negotiate complex relationships with these technologies in light of their history and beliefs Heidi Campbell suggests a method for studying these processes she calls the religious social shaping of technology and students are asked to consider four key areas religious tradition and history contemporary community values and priorities negotiation and innovating technology in light of the community communal discourses applied to justify use A wealth of examples such as the Christian e vangelism movement Modern Islamic discourses about computers and the rise of the Jewish kosher cell phone demonstrate the dominant strategies which emerge for religious media users as well as the unique motivations that guide specific groups

Jewish Reform Movement in the US Mara W. Cohen Ioannides,2017-11-20 This volume examines the development of the non liturgical parts of the Central Conference of American Rabbis Haggadot Through an understanding of the changes in American Jewish educational patterns and the CCAR s theology it explores how the CCAR Haggadah was changed over time to address the needs of the constituency While there have been many studies of the Haggadah and its development over the course of Jewish history there has been no such study of the non liturgical parts of the Haggadah that reflect the needs of the audience it reaches How the CCAR the first and largest of American born Judaisms addressed the changing needs of its members through its literature for the Passover Seder reveals much about the development of the movement This in turn provides for the readers of this book an understanding of how American Judaism has developed

Family Participation Haggadah Zion, Noam,David Dishon,1996 Jewish-American Identity and Critical Intercultural Communication Miriam Shoshana Sobre,2022-11-08 Jewish American Identity and Critical Intercultural Communication Never Forget Tikkun Olam and Kindness to Strangers explores what it means to be Jewish on a personal sociocultural and global political level This book employs 50 interviews with diverse Jewish voices to provide a history of Jewish migration to the US and to privilege voices that are not necessarily White and Eastern European Ashkenazic. Sobr argues for a more inclusive form of intercultural theorizing that favors intersectionality and allyship over oppression Olympics stereotypes between members of different nondominant groups and colorism within nondominant group discrimination. Such siloing of differences and further competing about whose differences are the most egregious minimizes critical intercultural coalition opportunities allowing for such groups as those who gave power to Trump and Netanyahu to connect while inclusive progressives engage in fighting and separatism. The author calls for transversal dialogic politics racially and historically accurate school curriculum intersectionality and more inclusive intercultural communication scholarship and practice as various means of working together against white nationalism and white supremacy in the US and the world. Scholars of religious studies cultural anthropology and intercultural communication will find this book of particular interest.
