Holston, 2012-12-13 This work examines a film distribution system paralleling the rise of early features and persisting until 1972 when Man of La Mancha

was the final roadshow to require reserved seating. Synonymous with Hollywood's star-studded premieres, roadshows were longer and cost more than regular features, making the experience similar to attending the legitimate theater. Roadshows often epic in subject matter, played selected usually only one theaters in major urban centers until demand decreased. De rigueur by the 1960s were musical overtures, intermissions, entre acte and exit music, and souvenir programs for sale in the lobby. Throughout the text are recollections by people who attended roadshows including actor John Kerr and actresses Barbara Eden and Ingrid Pitt. The focus is on roadshows released in the United States but an appendix identifies international roadshows and films forecast but not released as roadshows. Included are plots, contemporary critical reaction, premiere dates, production background, and methods of promotion, i.e. the ballyhoo. Guide to Computer Magazines Francis Amato, 1985

Handbook of Statistical Analysis and Data Mining Applications Robert Nisbet, John Elder, Gary D. Miner, 2009-05-14
The Handbook of Statistical Analysis and Data Mining Applications is a comprehensive professional reference book that guides business analysts, scientists, engineers, and researchers both academic and industrial through all stages of data analysis, model building, and implementation. The Handbook helps one discern the technical and business problem, understand the strengths and weaknesses of modern data mining algorithms, and employ the right statistical methods for practical application. Use this book to address massive and complex datasets with novel statistical approaches and be able to objectively evaluate analyses and solutions. It has clear, intuitive explanations of the principles and tools for solving problems using modern analytic techniques and discusses their application to real problems in ways accessible and beneficial to practitioners across industries from science and engineering to medicine, academia, and commerce. This handbook brings together in a single resource all the information a beginner will need to understand the tools and issues in data mining to build successful data mining solutions. Written By Practitioners for Practitioners. Non-technical explanations build understanding without jargon and equations. Tutorials in numerous fields of study provide step-by-step instruction on how to use supplied tools to build models. Practical advice from successful real-world implementations. Includes extensive case studies, examples, MS PowerPoint slides, and datasets. CD/DVD with valuable fully working 90-day software included. Complete Data Miner, QC Miner, Text Miner bound with book. Box Office, 1960 From Fidelity to History Anne-Marie Scholz, 2013-04-01. Scholarly approaches to the relationship between literature and film ranging from the traditional focus upon fidelity to more recent issues of intertextuality all contain a significant blind spot: a lack of theoretical and methodological attention to adaptation as an historical and transnational phenomenon. This book argues for a historically informed approach to American popular culture that reconfigures the classically defined adaptation phenomenon as a form of transnational reception. Focusing on several case studies including the films Sense and Sensibility 1995 and The Portrait of a Lady 1997 and the classics The Third Man 1949 and The Bridge on the River Kwai 1957, the author demonstrates the ways adapted literary works function as social and cultural events in history and how these become important sites of cultural
