McHale Postmodernist Fiction:

Postmodernist Fiction Brian McHale, 1987 Postmodernism is not a found object but a manufactured artifact Beginning from this constructivist premise Brian McHale develops a series of readings of problematically postmodernist novels Joyce's Ulysses Pynchon's Gravity's Rainbow and Vineland Eco's The Name of the Rose and Foucault's Pendulum the novels of Joseph McElroy and Christine Brooke Rose avant garde works such as Kathy Acker's Empire of the Senseless and the works of cyberpunk science fiction by William Gibson Bruce Sterling Lewis Shiner Rudy Rucker and others Although mainly focused on high or elite cultural products art novels Constructing Postmodernism relates these products to such phenomena of postmodern popular culture as television and the cinema paranoia and nuclear apocalypse angelology and the cybernetic interface and death now as always in spite of what Captain Kirk says the true Final Frontier McHale's previous book Postmodernist Fiction had seemed to propose a single all inclusive inventory of postmodernist poetics This book by contrast proposes multiple overlapping and interesting inventories not a construction of postmodernism but a plurality of constructions Publisher Constructing Postmodernism Brian McHale, 2012-11-12 Brian McHale provides a series of readings of a wide range of postmodernist fiction from Eco's Foucault's Pendulum to the works of cyberpunk science fiction relating the works to aspects of postmodern popular culture The Cambridge Introduction to Postmodernism Brian McHale, 2015-06-26 This Introduction surveys the full spectrum of postmodern culture from architecture and visual art to fiction poetry and drama The Fiction of Postmodernity Stephen Baker, 2000-06-07 The Fiction of Postmodernity is a significant and accessible study of the relation of postmodern fiction to theories of the postmodern Contemporary works of fiction by novelists such as Don DeLillo Toni Morrison Salman Rushdie Thomas Pynchon and Martin Amis are viewed in relation to critiques of the culture industry analyses of the postmodern condition and theories of simulacra The work of influential theorists of the postmodern such as Theodor Adorno Jean Fran ois Lyotard Fredric Jameson and Jean Baudrillard is explained and compared The book offers descriptions of the postmodern from both the Marxist critical tradition and from the perspective of postmarxism Key features in both these definitions are explained in relation to modernist and postmodern works of fiction Issues relating to the postmodern representation of history and the development of a postmodern politics are also addressed in relation to works of contemporary fiction The Cambridge History of Postmodern Literature Brian McHale, Len Platt, 2016-03-22 The Cambridge History of Postmodern Literature offers a comprehensive survey of the field from its emergence in the mid twentieth century to the present day It offers an unparalleled examination of all facets of postmodern writing that helps readers to understand how fiction and poetry literary criticism feminist theory mass media and the visual and fine arts have characterized the historical development of postmodernism Covering subjects from the Cold War and countercultures to the Latin American Boom and magic realism this History traces the genealogy of a literary tradition while remaining grounded in current scholarship It also presents new critical approaches to postmodern literature that will serve the needs of students and specialists alike Written by a host of leading scholars this History will not only engage readers in contemporary debates but also serve as a definitive reference for years to come British Postmodern Fiction

Theo d'. Haen, Theo d' Haen, Johannes Willem Bertens, 1993 The Illicit Joyce of Postmodernism Kevin J. H. Dettmar, 1996 For nearly three quarters of a century the modernist way of reading has been the only way of reading James Joyce useful yes and powerful but like all frameworks limited This book takes a leap across those limits into postmodernism where the pleasures and possibilities of an unsuspected Joyce are yet to be found Kevin J H Dettmar begins by articulating a stylistics of postmodernism drawn from the key texts of Roland Barthes Mikhail Bakhtin and Jean Fran ois Lyotard Read within this framework Dubliners emerges from behind its modernist facade as the earliest product of Joyce s proto postmodernist sensibility Dettmar exposes these stories as tales of mystery not mastery despite the modernist earmarks of plentiful symbols allusions and epiphanies Ulysses too has been inadequately served by modernist critics Where they have emphasized the work s ingenious Homeric structure Dettmar focuses instead upon its seams those points at which the narrative willfully joyfully overflows its self imposed bounds Finally he reads A Portrait of the Artist and Finnegans Wake as less playful less daring texts the first constrained by the precious would be poet at its center the last marking a surprising retreat from the constantly evolving vertiginous experience of Ulysses In short The Illicit Joyce of Postmodernism explores what happens when the extra literary pronouncements of Eliot Pound and Joyce as well as Joyce s early critics are set aside and a new unauthorized Joyce is allowed to appear This postmodern Joyce more willful and less easily compartmentalized stands as a counterpoint to the modernist Joyce who has perhaps become too familiar Fiction of Postmodernity Stephen Baker, 2019-06-01 The Fiction of Postmodernity is a significant and accessible new study of the relation of postmodern fiction to theories of the postmodern Contemporary works of fiction by novelists such as Don DeLillo Toni Morrison Salman Rushdie Thomas Pynchon and Martin Amis are viewed in relation to critiques of the culture industry analyses of the postmodern condition and theories of simulacra The work of influential theorists of the postmodern such as Theodor Adorno Jean Francois Lyotard Fredric Jameson and Jean Baudrillard is explained and compared The book offers descriptions of the postmodern from both the Marxist critical tradition and from the perspective of postmarxism Key features in both these definitions are explained in relation to modernist and postmodern works of fiction Issues relating to the postmodern representation of history and the development of a postmodern politics are also addressed in relation to works of contemporary fiction Key Features Substantial readings of fiction by major contemporary authors e g Thomas Pynchon Salman Rushdie Don DeLillo Introduces influential theories of the postmodern Fredric Jameson Jean Francois Lyotard Jean Baudrillard Analysis of the relationships of modernism and the avant garde to postmodernism Focuses on the critical potential of postmodernism and postmodern fiction Beyond Postmodernism Klaus Stierstorfer, 2012-05-02 After the veritable hype concerning postmodernism in the 1980s and early 1990s when questions about when it began what it means and which texts it comprises were apt to trigger heated discussions the excitement has notably cooled down at the turn of the century Voices are now beginning to be heard which seem to suggest a new episteme in the making which points beyond postmodernism while it remains at the same time very uncertain whether what appears as newness is not rather a return to traditional concepts theoretical premises and authorial practices Contributors to this volume propose to explore new openings and recent developments in anglophone literatures and cultural theories which engage with issues seen to be central in the construction of a postmodern paradigm but deal with them in ways that promise new openings or a new Zeitgeist

The Postmodern Fantastic in Contemporary British Fiction Martin Horstkotte, 2004 This study looks at the complex relationship between postmodernism and the fantastic in contemporary British fiction and shows that a new type of the fantastic arises in postmodernism Arguing against interpretations that view postmodernism as inherently fantastic it seeks to define the postmodern fantastic as a narrative mode that is influenced by certain traits both of the traditional fantastic and of literary postmodernism but does not simply conflate both In the first theoretical part a number of theories of the fantastic and of postmodernism are used to set the fantastic apart from other non mimetic forms of literature and to create a model of the postmodern fantastic that postulates the totalisation of the fantastic in postmodernism In the second part of this study this model is applied to a number of contemporary British texts which are particularly susceptible to this form of the fantastic due to several characteristics such as their muted kind of postmodernism and their frequent construction of parallel worlds The analysis of these texts focuses on four thematic fields of the postmodern fantastic the figure of the other as defined by Bernhard Waldenfels time and history text and textuality and the development of the Todorovian pure fantastic Finally the question of the death of the fantastic in postmodernism is examined

Post Modernist Fiction Brian McHale, 1991 Fictional Death and the Modernist Enterprise Alan Warren Friedman, 1995-01-26 This 1995 book analyses of the semiotics of death and dying in twentieth century fiction history and culture

Towards a Poetics of Postmodern Drama Mufti Mudasir, 2014-06-26 The book is a study of Harold Pinter and Tom Stoppard arguably the two most eminent British playwrights of the past sixty years or so from a perspective of what it describes as a poetics of postmodern drama Arguing for the application of Linda Hutcheon s model of postmodernism to the study of drama Towards a Poetics of Postmodern Drama shows that postmodern drama should be seen as a self consciously contradictory and double coded phenomenon one which simultaneously inscribes and subverts the conventional categories of dramatic representation In spite of its indebtedness to Beckett s Absurdist and Brecht s Epic theaters postmodern drama should not be conflated with either This is primarily because postmodern drama retains a critical edge towards contemporary reality in a manner which Hutcheon very aptly terms as a complicitous critique The book demonstrates that both Pinter and Stoppard are pre eminently postmodern in their treatment of issues such as the human subject the notion of truth historical verifiability and linguistic reference Pinter s preoccupation with non referential modes of language use the role of power in the construction of the subject and unreliable memories is as potent a way of disrupting the representational status of drama as Stoppard's repeated recourse to devices such as parody theater within theater and the fictional treatment of history Subversive Intent Susan Rubin Suleiman, 1990 With this important new book Susan Suleiman lays the foundation for a postmodern feminist poetics and theory of the avant garde She shows how the figure of Woman as fantasy myth or metaphor has functioned in the work of male avant garde writers and artists of this century Focusing also on women's avant garde artistic practices Suleiman demonstrates how to read difficult modern works in a way that reveals their political as well as their aesthetic impact Suleiman directly addresses the subversive intent of avant garde movements from Surrealism to postmodernism Through her detailed readings of provocatively transgressive works by Andr Breton Georges Bataille Roland Barthes Alain Robbe Grillet Marcel Duchamp Max Ernst and others Suleiman demonstrates the central role of the female body in the male erotic imagination and illuminates the extent to which masculinist assumptions have influenced modern art and theory By examining the work of contemporary women avantgarde artists and theorists including H l ne Cixous Marguerite Duras Monique Wittig Luce Irigaray Angela Carter Jeanette Winterson Leonora Carrington Barbara Kruger Jenny Holzer and Cindy Sherman Suleiman shows the political power of feminist critiques of patriarchal ideology and especially emphasizes the power of feminist humor and parody Central to Suleiman's revisionary theory of the avant garde is the figure of the playful laughing mother True to the radically irreverent spirit of the historical avant gardes and their postmodernist successors Suleiman's laughing mother embodies the need for a link between symbolic innovation and political and social change

Vanguardia and Postmodern Fiction Adrian Taylor Kane, 2006 Abandon All Hope - Consumerism and Loss of Identity in Bret Easton Ellis's American Psycho As an Example of Blank Fiction Anja Schiel, 2008-04 Thesis M A from the year 2005 in the subject American Studies Literature grade 1 5 University of Hamburg Sprach Literatur und Medienwissenschaft language English abstract Bret Easton Ellis's American Psycho has been labeled many things from Brat Pack Fiction to Generation X to Minimal Realism While the classification of the novel might be difficult and it has often been misunderstood for its extremely violent scenes what is clear to the attentive reader is its critique of consumer culture Critics have acknowledged an emergence of a large number of writings dealing with this topic in contemporary American literature in the recent past These novels focus on the relationship of American youth with consumer culture with a seemingly non elaborate content and style Attempts of explaining this kind of writing which has also been called fiction of insurgency new narrative downtown writing and punk fiction range from millennial angst to the classification of this literary movement as part of the postmodern culture What seems clear is that these narrations are closely related to the society they have been created in The way these texts incorporate products of their time as a constant accompanying element places them very clearly in a specific time period The apparent non existence of complexity concerning the style which at times reminds the reader of a movie script or a sequence of an MTV video has in the case of American Psycho caused many critics to classify the novel as boring and deny the author the status of an artist Exactly this seeming meaninglessness of these novels argues in favor of a term introduced by critics James Annesley and Elizabeth Young Blank fiction or Blank Generation Fiction The term Blank fiction seems to capture perfectly the emptiness created by consumer culture that has found its way into these narratives not simply in its context but also by means of its language incorporating consumer goods i

Narrative and Fantasy in the Post-war German Novel Chloe E. M. Paver,1999 Narrative and Fantasy in the Post War German Novel a study of novels by Uwe Johnson Max Frisch Christa Wolf Jurek Becker and G nter Grass investigates the fictions and fantasies invented by five narrators examining the purpose which the fictions serve within each text and the means by which each author deliberately draws attention to them All five authors are shown to be concerned with the kinds of stories which ordinary people tell about themselves and their past lives While some of the texts demonstrate the positive power of imagination others point to the dangers of fiction its tendency to falsify reality and to encourage escapist and violent fantasies This is the first major study of this distinctive trend in post war German fiction
