Cultural Meanings of News Daniel A. Berkowitz, 2011 What is news Why does news turn out like it does What factors influence the creation production and dissemination of news Cultural Meanings of News takes on these deceptively simple questions through an essential collection of seminal and contemporary studies by leaders in the fields of mass communication and media studies Similar in format and purpose to editor Dan Berkowitz's award winning Social Meanings of News this new volume represents a conceptual update a continuation of the discourse about the nature of news and how it comes to be moving ideas ahead from the earlier tradition of sociological approaches to the more pervasive cultural perspectives that inform understandings about news Cultural Meanings of News provides a carefully selected set of readings organized into thematic areas that each probe a dimension of the literature from sociological roots to cultural perspectives news as narrative and cultural text newswork as cultural ritual news as cultural myth news and its interpretive communities news as a source and reflection of collective memory toward the future of news research This text reader provides students and scholars with first hand exposure to cultural approaches to the study of news while also providing an organizing framework for understanding the commonalities and differences between threads in the research The goals are to engage readers through guided immersion in the material

Implications of the Sacred in (post)modern Media Johanna Sumiala-Seppänen, Knut Lundby, Raimo Salokangas, 2006

How the World's News Media Reacted to 9/11 Tomasz Phudowski, 2007 How Did the World's News Media React to 9/11 Not surprisingly most of the world's news media criticized the terrorists and offered sympathy and support to the United States in the days right after the September 11 2001 attacks But this phase didn't last long With a week or two many of the world's news media even some in Western countries were putting some of the blame for the attacks on the United States citing its history of heavy handed politics around the world

Many hoped the attacks would wake up the United States to this fact But the subsequent U S led wars in Afghanistan and Iraq dashed these hopes Today much of the sympathy and support generated from the tragedy has dissipated a replaced instead by a widespread belief that political leadership in the United States is more arrogant intransigent and self absorbed than ever This is the major theme of How the World's News Media Reacted to 9/11 which contains 22 chapters written by scholars and experts from around the world that examine news media coverage of 9/11 from more than two dozen countries The arrogance theme isn't one that many U S politicians journalists and citizens want to hear But it's the message that the world's news media have been sending and the question now is Will U S media and politicians listen Other key highlights in this book American TV news channel news executives deliberately excluded controversial U S guests and opinions from their news coverage of 9/11 Chapter 20 Media in Australia Canada and other countries demonized Muslims and Arabs after 9/11 Chapters 18 and 21 Ordinary Arabs and Muslims in the Middle East have distorted views of the United States partly because their media do not provide all of the facts Chapter 15 but Americans too misunderstand Muslims and Arabs because U S media have failed to help Americans understand why much of the world hates their political leadership numerous chapters

The Racist Murder of Stephen Lawrence Simon Cottle, 2004-10-30 Simon Cottle examines how the media coverage of the racist murder of an 18 year old black student prompted British society to re-examine questions of injustice cultural identity and racism Media Discourses Donald Matheson, 2005 Introducing readers to insights from discourse analysis into how media communication works this book discusses what is being shared in media texts what gets represented who gets to do the talking what people need to share in order to understand the media and how power relations are reinforced or challenged Murder, the Media, and the Politics of Public Feelings Jennifer Petersen, 2011 In 1998 the horrific murders of Matthew Shepard a gay man living in Laramie Wyoming and James Byrd Jr an African American man dragged to his death in Jasper Texas provoked a passionate public outrage The intense media coverage of the murders made moments of violence based in racism and homophobia highly visible which eventually led to the passage of The Matthew Shepard and James Byrd Jr Hate Crimes Prevention Act in 2009 The role the media played in cultivating shaping and directing the collective emotional response toward these crimes is the subject of this gripping new book by Jennifer Petersen Tracing the emotional exchange from news stories to the creation of law Petersen calls for an approach to media and democratic politics that takes into account the role of affect in the political and legal life of the nation

Communication Audience Studies Lynn Schofield Clark, 2005 As new developments in the study of media audiences have unfolded in recent years new concerns have entered the landscape New Directions in Popular Communication Audience Studies addresses the topic of globalization one of the most sweeping concerns that has reconceptualized the relationship among media audiences and power This special issue covers current debates over meaning making that have arisen within the context of these concerns The articles examine scholarship in globalization and media relating to the fields of media studies anthropology and American Studies Highlighting important new directions for the study of popular communication this special issue offers ways that researchers can reconsider their own projects and interests in light of worldwide developments that affect us all     Betraying the Event Fatima Festić,2009 This volume makes note of an attempt to sustain a conversation about changes in the ways the processes of victimization are written out and comprehended The contributors aim to expose some recent instances and modalities of cultural and political constructions of victimhood in various parts of the world     Liminal Subjects, Liminal Nation Nan Youngnan Kim-Paik,2007     The Discourse of Politics in Action Ruth Wodak,2009-04-28 Offers first hand evidence of the everyday lives of politicians what politicians actually do on the backstage in political organizations This book deals with questions of performance of politicians in EU organizations and with TV soaps representing the everyday lives of politicians in answering relevant questions about global politics     Production Culture John Thornton Caldwell,2008-03-25 An investigation of the cultural practices and belief systems of Los Angelesbased film and video production workers     Global Pentecostalism David Westerlund,2009-03-30 Pentecostalism is a movement within Christianity placing special emphasis on a believer s personal encounter with God through the Holy Spirit It is arguably the world s fastest growing form of religion While exact figures are uncertain there may now be as many as 500 million Pentecostals Closely related to other forms of born again Christianity Evangelical and Charismatic Pentecostalism has been described as a religion made to travel From the outset it has been a strong missionary movement and has been oriented towards recruitment and expansion Research into this important form of Christianity has become more popular of late but the movement s remarkably fast spread is still not well understood In particular its constant worldwide encounters with other religions and beliefs as well as with different forms of Christianity have seldom been explored at length This rich and varied book remedies that neglect Although its adherents supposedly preach a universal message in practice Pentecostalism s global spread has resulted in increasing diversification The volume investigates the consequences of that spread and of the accommodations Pentecostal missionaries have to make when faced by pluralism and the challenges posed by ecumenism Ranging across every major continent the contributors to the volume make a significant contribution towards a fuller and more complete understanding of this remarkable world faith Pentecostalism is topical fast expanding newsworthy and exotic This is the definitive collection by international experts on the movement It is the first book to address Pentecostalism s fascinating relationship with other faiths and beliefs

Media Rituals A Critical Approach: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Media Rituals A Critical Approach : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Media Rituals A Critical Approach : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and suspenseful novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
