Media And Ritual Media And Ritual:

Media Rituals Nick Couldry, 2005-07-08 Media Rituals rethinks our accepted concepts of ritual behaviour for a media saturated age It connects ritual directly with questions of power government and surveillance and explores the ritual space which the media construct and where their power is legitimated Drawing on sociological and anthropological approaches to the study of ritual Couldry applies the work of theorists such as Durkheim Bourdieu and Bloch to a number of important media arenas the public media event reality TV Webcam sites talk shows and docu soaps media pilgrimages the construction of celebrity In a final chapter he imagines a different world where the media s ritual power is less because the possibilities of participation in media production are more evenly shared

Media and Ritual Johanna Sumiala, 2012-10-02 This wide ranging and accessible book offers a stimulating introduction to the field of media anthropology and the study of religious ritual Johanna Sumiala explores the interweaving of rituals communication and community She uses the tools of anthropological enquiry to examine a variety of media events including the death of Michael Jackson a royal wedding and the transgressive actions which took place in Abu Ghraib and to understand the inner significance of the media coverage of such events The book deals with theories of ritual media as ritual including reception production and representation and rituals of death in the media It will be invaluable to students and scholars alike across media religion and anthropology

Ritual, Media, and Conflict, 2011 Here an interdisciplinary team of 24 scholars locates describes and explores cases in which media driven rituals or ritually saturated media instigate disseminate or escalate conflict Each chapter built around global and local examples of ritualized mediatized conflict is multi authored

Media and Ritual Johanna Sumiala, 2013 This wide ranging and accessible book offers a stimulating introduction to the field of media anthropology and the study of religious ritual Johanna Sumiala explores the interweaving of rituals communication and community She uses the tools of anthropological enquiry to examine a variety of media events including the death of Michael Jackson a royal wedding and the transgressive actions which took place in Abu Ghraib and to understand the inner significance of the media coverage of such events The book deals with theories of ritual media as ritual including reception production and representation and rituals of death in the media It will be invaluable to students and scholars alike across media religion and anthropology

Ritual, Media, and Conflict Ronald L. Grimes, Ute Husken, Udo Simon, Eric Venbrux, 2011-05-26 An interdisciplinary team of twenty four scholars locates describes and explores cases in which media driven rituals or ritually saturated media instigate disseminate or escalate conflict The book s central question is When ritual and media interact either by the mediatizing of ritual or by the ritualizing of media how do the patterns of conflict change

Rite out of Place Ronald L. Grimes, 2006-08-10 Much ritual studies scholarship still focuses on central religious rites For this reason Grimes argues dominant theories like the data they consider remain stubbornly conservative This book issues a challenge to these theories and to popular conceptions of ritual Rite Out of Place collects 10 revised essays originally published in widely varied sources across the past five years Grimes has selected for inclusion those essays that track ritual as it haunts the edges of cultural boundaries ritual converging with theater ritual on television ritual at the edge of natural environments and so on The writing is non technical and the implied audience is sufficiently broad than any educated person interested in religion and public life should find it intelligible and engaging

Media, Ritual, and Identity Elihu Katz, 1998 Content Description A tribute to Elihu Katz Includes bibliographical references

Recasting Ritual Mary M. Crain, Felicia Hughes-Freeland, 2003-12-16 Recasting Ritual explores how ritualized action diversifies in response to varying cultural political and physical contexts The contributors look at how issues such as globalisation and technology affect ritual performance and how minorities often utilise performances to affirm their own identities while also speaking to outsiders The contributors examine the relationship between ritual meaning and social identity through case studies drawn from the Pacific Scandinavia the Mediterranean Latin America Indonesia and East and West Africa Study of the theoretical underpinnings of social action affirms the independence of anthropology as a discipline from cultural media and performance studies according it a distinctive role in elucidating contemporary and emergent human conditions

Ritual, Performance, Media Felicia Hughes-Freeland, Super Media Michael R. Real, 1989-05-01 Written in a clear and engaging style Super Media introduces and examines the newly emerging cultural studies approach to understanding media Michael Real begins by providing a critical review of previous traditions of media research and theory illustrated with tables and comparative charts and re integrates media study around cultural studies He argues that issues of personal identity and consciousness of conflict and bias of politics and policy are more effectively articulated and understood through cultural studies Drawing from both humanities and the social sciences he centers his analyses in text meaning representation interpretation conflict ideology hegemony and culture Extensive case stud

New Media and Cultural Hybridisation. A Study on the Influence of New Media Technologies on the Youth of Silchar, India Sayan Dey, 2022-12-14 Doctoral Thesis Dissertation from the year 2019 in the subject Communications Multimedia Internet New Technologies Assam University language English abstract The topic of this research work propose to understand the impact of New Media Technologies on the undergraduate students of an urban area of North East India to test if these technologies are having any cultural implications in terms of juxtaposition of multiple cultures The thesis argues that New Media Applications have brought in a sense of hybrid culture among the youth by affecting the perception and consumption of cultural indicators among college goers In this age of New Media it is becoming increasingly difficult to distinguish between virtual and real these days With the burgeoning of technology enabled communication interactional transactions have become heavily dependent and concentric upon webbed web Be it social political or cultural every aspect of contemporary human sustenance has gone for a toss and a state of interweavements has been attained In the present day a gamut of digital communication online tools applications and technologies have become part and parcel of everyday affairs and even more so in the realms of communication It is quite obvious that new communication networks empowered with digital technologies and internet are foremost tools which have enabled the enterprise of completely new representation of information production and dissemination cultural production management and control
