Mediation Law Journey Institutionalism Juridification:

Mediation Law Penny Brooker, 2013-10-23 In England mediation became a key part of the civil justice reform agenda after the Woolf Reforms of 1996 as disputants were deflected from litigation towards settlement outside the court system The Civil Procedure Rules CPR give courts the power to encourage mediation through judicial case management or use stronger measures by using costs to penalise parties who act unreasonably by refusing to use ADR or mediation One of the effects of this institutionalisation is an emerging case law that defines how mediation is practiced as it merges with the litigation process When mediation first began to be used in England the parties either agreed to mediate by a contract before a dispute happened or decided to attempt the process as a way of resolving disagreements Inevitably some disputants either refused to abide by their contractual obligations or would not follow through with the settlement agreements reached through the process This brought the authority of the law into a new area and the juridification process began This book explores how mediation law shapes the practice of mediation in the English jurisdiction It provides a comprehensive examination of the legal framework for mediation and explores the jurisprudence in order to analyse the extent that institutionalisation by the state and courts has led to the monopolisation by lawyers and a further juridification process results The book includes a comparative legal methodology on the framework underpinning mediation practise in other common law jurisdictions including the United States Australia and Hong Kong in order to explicate shared or distinctive approaches to mediation The book will be of great interest to academics and students of legal theory and dispute resolution Alternative Dispute Resolution of Shareholder Disputes in Hong Kong Ida Kwan Lun Mak, 2019-12-19 The landscape of shareholder dispute resolution in Hong Kong has changed vastly since the launch of the Civil Justice Reform in 2009 Key initiatives the voluntary court connected scheme and reform of the statutory unfair prejudice provisions were employed to promote the greater use of alternative dispute resolution ADR in shareholder disputes While the Hong Kong government and judiciary introduced such schemes to prove the legitimacy of extra judicial over court based litigation processes their success is still uncertain In this book socio legal theory and sociological institutionalism are used to develop a theoretical framework for analyzing the key stages of institutionalization The author analyzes how procedural innovations could acquire legitimacy through different types of legal and non legal inducement mechanisms within the institutionalization process Recommendations on codifying and innovating ADR policy in Hong Kong shareholder disputes are also made with comparison to similar policies in the United Kingdom South Africa and New Zealand Mediation and Commercial Contract Law Maryam Salehijam, 2020-12-10 There is an urgent need to better understand the legal issues pertaining to alternative dispute resolution ADR particularly in relation to mediation clauses Despite the promotion of mediation by dispute resolution providers policy makers and judges use of mediation remains low In particular problems arise when parties lack certainty regarding the legal effect of a mediation clause and the potential uncertainty regarding the binding nature of agreements to pursue mediation is problematic and threatens the growth of ADR This book closely examines the importance and complexity of mediation clauses in commercial contracts to remedy this persistent uncertainty Using comparative law methods and detailed empirical research it explores the creation of a comprehensive framework for the mediation clause Providing valuable insight into the process of ADR and mediation this book will be of interest to academics law makers law students in house council lawyers as well as parties interesting in drafting enforceable mediation clauses
