The Worlding of the South African Novel Jane Poyner, 2020-08-20 The Worlding of the South African Novel develops from something of a paradox that despite momentous political transition from apartheid to democracy little in South Africa's socio economic reality has actually changed Poyner discusses how the contemporary South African novel engages with this reality In forms of literary experiment the novels open up intellectual spaces shaping or contesting the idea of the new South Africa The mediatizing of truth at the TRC hearings how best to deal with a spectacular yet covert past the shaping for unimagined communities of an inclusive public sphere HIV AIDS as the preeminent site testing capitalist modernity white anxieties about land reform disease as environmental injustice and the fostering of an enabling restorative cultural memory Poyner argues that through these key nodes of intellectual thought the novels speak to recent debates on world literature to register the shock of an uneven modernity produced by a capitalist world economy
