Patrick Skinds Novelle Analyse Symbolik:

Reconstructing Female Sexuality and Deconstructing Male Anxiety Gizem Serdar Ömür, 2024-03-06 This interdisciplinary study undertakes a profound exploration of the representation and symbolism surrounding female genitalia seeking to challenge entrenched patriarchal narratives By delving into works by Charles Burns Angela Carter and Patrick S skind the analysis unveils the intricate interplay between female sexuality and the male psyche Employing the works of feminist theorists such as Luce Irigaray Julia Kristeva H l ne Cixous Barbara Creed Riana Eisler Bracha Ettinger and Marija Gimbutas this analysis places the androcentric views reflected in the works of Freud Lacan and Jung under scrutiny Departing from conventional approaches this research celebrates the reproductive features of women aiming to resurrect a primordial representation rooted in procreational power Drawing from diverse fields including myth psychology archaeology philosophy and religion the study illuminates the layers of unconscious thought embedded in literary works Ultimately this study advocates for a non binary understanding of femininity positioning the female reproductive body as an enduring gateway between animate and inanimate realms both alluring and repelling Patrick White, a Critical Symposium Ron Shepherd, Kirpal Singh, 1978 Papers of the National Seminar on Patrick White Flinders University of South Australia 1978

Caravaggio in Film and Literature Laura Rorato, 2017-07-05 Although fictional responses to Caravaggio date back to the painter s lifetime 1571 1610 it was during the second half of the twentieth century that interest in him took off outside the world of art history In this new monograph the first book length study of Caravaggio s recent impact Rorato provides a panoramic overview of his appropriation by popular culture The extent of the Caravaggio myth and its self perpetuating nature are brought out by a series of case studies involving authors and directors from numerous countries Italy Great Britain America Canada France and Norway and literary and filmic texts from a number of genres from straightforward tellings of his life to crime fiction homoerotic film and postcolonial literature Midnight's Orphans Glenn D'Cruz, 2006

This book is the first detailed study of Anglo Indians in literature Rather than simply dismissing the representation of Anglo Indians in literary texts as offensive stereotypes the book identifies the conditions for the emergence of these stereotypes through close readings of key novels such as Bhowani Junction Midnight s Children and The Impressionist It also examines the work of contemporary Anglo Indian writers such as Allan Sealy and Christopher Cyrill Mysticism and the Mid-Century Novel J. Clements, 2011-11-01 This book argues that many of the mid twentieth century s significant novelists were united by a desire to return the increasingly interior novel to ethical engagement They did not seek morality in society politics or the individual will but sought to unveil a transcendent Good by using techniques drawn from the canon of mystical literature Reclaiming Difference Carine M. Mardorossian, 2005 In Reclaiming Difference Carine Mardorossian examines the novels of four women writers Jean Rhys Dominica UK Maryse Cond Guadeloupe USA Edwidge Danticat Haiti USA and Julia Alvarez Dominican Republic USA showing how their writing has radically reformulated the meanings of the national geographical sexual and racial concepts through which postcolonial studies has long been configuring difference. Coming from the anglophone francophone and hispanophone Caribbean these writers all stage and identify with transcultural experiences that undermine the usual classification of literary texts in terms of national and regional literatures and by doing so they challenge the idea that racial and cultural identities function as stable points of reference in our unstable world. Focusing on the transformations that have taken place in postcolonial studies since the field began to focus on theory Mardorossian highlights not only how these writers make use of the styles of creolization and hybridity that have dominated Caribbean and postcolonial studies in recent years but also how they distinguish themselves from the movement's leading figures by offering new articulations of the ties that link race and nation to gender and class. She illuminates how these writers extend the notion of hybridity away from racial and cultural differences in isolation from each other to a set of crisscrossing categories that challenge our simpler normative figurations. For scholars in postcolonial studies Caribbean studies literary feminist studies and studies in comparative literature Reclaiming Difference represents a new phase in postcolonial studies that calls for a fundamental rethinking of the field's terminology and assumptions. Writing the Colonial Adventure Robert Dixon, 1995 This book explores imperial ideology through the narrative themes of popular texts.

Dissertation Abstracts International ,2007 Spirit Possession in French, Haitian, and Vodou Thought

Alessandra Benedicty-Kokken, 2014-11-12 This book recuperates the important history that Haitian thought around Vodou possession has had in French critical theory. The author takes the period of the 1930s and 40s as the centerfold of a more complex network of relations that places Haiti as one of the pivots of a more expanded intellectual conversation around possession which links anthropology literature psychoanalysis human rights and visual arts in France Haiti and the United States. Benedicty argues that Haiti as the anthropological other serves as a kick starter to an entire French based theoretical apparatus Breton Leiris Bataille de Certeau Foucault and Butler but once up and running its role as catalyst is forgotten and the multiple iterations of the anthropological other are cast back into the net of Michel Rolph Trouillot's Savage slot. The book offers the reader unfamiliar with Haiti a comprehensive interdisciplinary study of twentieth and early twenty first century Haitian thought including a detailed timeline of important moments in the intellectual history that connects Haiti to France and the United States. The first part of the book is about global dispossessions in the first decades of the twentieth century the second part points to how the narratives of Haiti are intimately linked to a Franco U S American discursive space constructed over the course of the twentieth century a discursive order that has conflated the representation of Haiti with an understanding of Vodou primarily as an occult religion and not as a philosophical system. The third and fourth parts of the book examine how the novels of Ren Depestre Jean Claude Fignol and Kettly Mars have revisited the notion of possession since the fall of the Duvalier dictatorships. Acta Neophilologica Univerza v Ljubljani. Straight Skin, Gay Masks and Pretending to be Gay on Screen Gilad Padvá, 2020-05-11 Straight Skin Gay Masks and

Pretending to Be Gay on Screen examines cinematic depictions of pretending to be gay assessing performances that not only reflect heteronormative and explicitly homophobic attitudes but also offer depictions of gay selfhood with more nuanced multidirectional identifications The case of straight protagonists pretending to be gay on screen is the ideal context in which to study unanticipated progressivity and dissidence in regard to cultural construction of human sexualities in the face of theatricalized epistemological collapse Teasing apart the dynamics of depictions of both sexual stability and fluidity in cinematic images of men pretending to be gay offers new insights into such salient issues as sexual vulnerability and dynamics and long term queer visibility in a politically complicated mass culture which is mostly produced in a heteronormative and even hostile cultural environment Additionally this book initially examines queer uses of sexuality masquerade in Alternate Gay World Cinema that allegorically features a world pretending to be gay in which straights are harassed and persecuted in order to expose the tragic consequences of sexual intolerance Films and TV series examined as part of the analysis include The Gay Deceivers Victor Victoria Happy Texas William Friedkin s Cruising and many other straight and gay screens This is a fascinating and important study relevant to students and researchers in Film Studies Media Studies Gender Studies Queer Studies Sexuality Studies Communication Studies and Cultural Studies
