Patterns Of Discipleship In The New Testament McMaster New Testament Studies:

Patterns of Discipleship in the New Testament Richard N. Longenecker, 1996 These essays examine what the New Testament says about the subject of discipleship highlight the features of both unity and diversity that appear throughout the New Testament and suggest how Christian discipleship can be expressed today The Road from Damascus Richard N. Longenecker, 1997 The august contributors to this volume examine the nature of Paul's Damascus Road experience and the impact of that experience on his thought and ministry and explore how Paul's experience functions as a paradigm for Christian thought today The Spirituality of Following Jesus in John's Gospel Sean Seongik Kim, 2017-10-12 Research on following Jesus has mostly been done in terms of what Jesus followers ought to do In this unprecedented study Kim presents following Jesus in John's Gospel through the perspective of what Jesus does for his followers Following Jesus is a journey towards the place where Jesus leads his followers that is to a relationship with the Father It is ultimately participating in the Son's communion with the Father Jesus who was in the bosom of the Father descended from him and ascends to him taking his followers with him so that they may be with him where he is with the Father in glory and love Kim develops this thesis by examining the term akolouthein to follow and correlated motifs in John's Gospel The Meaning of "Make Disciples" in the Broader Context of the Gospel of Matthew Lindsay D. Arthur, 2022-05-09 Students of the Bible are generally comfortable with their understanding of the command make disciples Matt 28:19 Indeed most of them would argue that the Gospel writer Matthew spells out very clearly the meaning of the term in the Great Commission Matt 28:16-20 by utilizing three key words viz go, baptizing and teaching This point of view is the result of centuries of scholarly opinion that has looked primarily if not solely to these three adjacent participles of make disciples Matt 28:19 and not to the entire Gospel of Matthew for the meaning of the command This book does not suggest that going baptizing and teaching are not to be considered in determining the essence of Christian disciple making Rather it contends that the three terms should not be our only source of meaning This problem is tackled herein by demonstrating that Matthew establishes a framework within the Great Commission itself that points to a fuller meaning of make disciples in the broader context of his Gospel and that the Gospel writer expects his reader to draw on his entire Gospel to grasp the full meaning of this important command The Turning Point in the Gospel of Mark Gregg S. Morrison, 2014-09-24 Based on linguistic and thematic links in the narrative The Turning Point in the Gospel of Mark argues that the twin pericopae of Peter's confession 8:27-38 and the Transfiguration 9:2-13 together function as the turning point of the Gospel and serve in a Janus-like manner enabling the reader to see the author's main focus the identity of Jesus and the significance of that reality for his disciples Peter's confession of Jesus as Messiah faces backward toward the Prologue 1:1-13 and functions as a mid-course conclusion The declaration by God on the mountain faces forward and foreshadows the end-course conclusion 14:61-62 15:39 Son of God Jesus in response teaches that the Son of Man must suffer and die before being raised from the dead 8:31 Christologically the images of Messiah Son of

Man and Son of God converge and present Jesus the crucified as king ushering in the kingdom of God in power 9 1 acting as the key swivel between the twin pericopae When one is confronted with this Jesus though there remains something elusive about him and the kingdom of God in the narrative the only wise decision after calculating the costs 8 34 38 is to follow

Ecclesial Solidarity in the Pauline Corpus James T. Hughes,2019-06-12 Over the years there have been many treatments of Paul s theology that have focused on what the churches he wrote to were like and what that might mean for today However what Paul says about relationships between churches has been frequently neglected or only briefly considered This book analyzes Paul s use of the word church as well as family imagery holiness language body imagery and Paul s understanding of imitation and apostleship to demonstrate the breadth of his understanding of relationships between churches of inter church solidarity Inter church solidarity is shown to be integral to Paul s understanding of church from the earliest letters and the book exposes a rich tapestry of relationships that should challenge and encourage the church in the twenty first century

Incorporated Servanthood Ben Cooper,2014-03-27 In this volume Ben Cooper analyses how commitment to God is described within the Gospel of Matthew how this is related to becoming a disciple of Jesus and how reading or hearing the Gospel works to evoke such a response The analysis draws upon a variety of approaches in linguistics and literary studies in a new way to characterise the communicative equilibrium between the author and the subset of readers who process the text compliantly Cooper argues that Matthew s Gospel evokes in its compliant readers a particular kind of theocentric commitment which he calls incorporated Servanthood Such readers become persuaded that Jesus came to bring forgiveness of sins to the people of God and then to take this salvation out to the nations a program that can be associated with Isaiah s Servant of the Lord Compliant readers are humbled so they can be served by the Servant for the forgiveness of their sins They are then incorporated into his program for the nations to join in the task of incorporating others
