Oreo A Collection Of Poems:

Dictionary Catalog of the Harris Collection of American Poetry and Plays, Brown University Library, Providence, Rhode Island Brown University Library, 1972    We Are Green and Trembling Gabriela Cabezón Cámara, 2025-06-03 Lyrical and swashbuckling tender and surreal Gabriela Cabezón Cámara's new novel finds glimmers of hope for the future in the brutal history of colonial Latin America. Deep in the wilds of the New World Antonio de Erauso begins to write a letter to his aunt the prioress of the Basque convent he escaped as a young girl. Since fleeing a dead end life as a nun he's become Antonio and undertaken monumental adventures he has been a mule driver shopkeeper soldier cabin boy and conquistador he has wielded his sword and slashed with his dagger. Now caring for two Guarani girls he rescued from enslavement and hounded by the army he deserted this protean protagonist contemplates one more metamorphosis which just might save the new world from extinction. Based on the life of Antonio de Erauso a real figure of the Spanish conquest We Are Green and Trembling is a queer baroque satire and a historical novel that blends elements of the picaresque with surreal storytelling. Its rich and wildly imaginative language forms a searing criticism of conquest and colonialism religious tyranny and the treatment of women and indigenous people. It is a masterful subversion of Latin American history with a trans character at its center finding in the rainforest a magical surreal space where transformation is not only possible but necessary.

Tracker Alexis Wright, 2025-09-02 A breathtaking monumental work of collective memoir from the master Alexis Wright. How do you tell an impossible story one that is almost too big to contain in a single book? In Tracker Alexis Wright tells the story of charismatic Aboriginal Australian leader Tracker Tilmouth who died in Darwin in 2015 at the age of 62. Taken from his family as a child and brought up in a mission on Croker Island Tracker worked tirelessly for Aboriginal self determination creating opportunities for land use and economic development in his many roles including Director of the Central Land Council of the Northern Territory. Tracker was a visionary and a strategist renowned for his irreverent humour and his determination to tell things the way he saw them. Having known him for many years Alexis Wright interviewed Tracker along with family friends colleagues and the politicians he influenced weaving their stories together in a manner reminiscent of Nobel Prize winner Svetlana Alexievich's Secondhand Time. The book is as much a testament to the powerful role played by storytelling in contemporary Aboriginal life as it is to the legacy of an extraordinary man.

On the Clock Claire Baglin, 2025-03-04 A marvelous debut from the hugely talented young French writer Claire Baglin this tender and painful portrait of working class life finds shards of poetry inside the twin hardships of poverty and service work. Claire Baglin's On the Clock packs a family saga a penetrating picture of social inequality and a coming of age story into a compact tale told in two alternating strands. The first follows the 20 year old narrator s summer job at a fast food franchise and the other shows us moments from her childhood with her family with a particular focus on her hapless infuriating good hearted father a low paid but devoted electrician in a factory with an upside down smile These two skeins sketch out in swift turns two stories of underappreciated work one covering several decades the other a summer one constituting a sort of life the other a stopgap on the way to something different the narrator is a college student With a keen eye for eloquent details and sharp ear for workplace jargon her dry humor and a crisp compelling style Baglin s depiction of their lives is particularly rich at once affectionate and alienated Working the alternating strands in a way reminiscent of Georges Perec s W or the The Memory of Childhood the past is remarkably vivid in On the Clock her childhood memories of their bleak small town and of summer vacations spent at campgrounds by the sea in Brittany And the present blazes in scenes of the young woman s current fast food trial the awful boss the nasty manager and all the tedium and horror of dead end work Slowly the oven door opens and a nursery school tune announces that the salad rolls can come out and I m mired in the heart of pointlessness I stick a straw into the whipped cream but don t take off the end of the paper wrapper so they ll know it hasn t been used I m conscientious
