Preacher Woman Katie Lauve-Moon,2021 When organizations are committed to gender equality what gets in the way of their achieving it How and why do well intentioned people end up reinforcing sexism Katie Lauve Moon examines these questions by focusing on religious congregations that separated from their mainline denomination in order to support women s equal leadership In Preacher Woman Lauve Moon concentrates on congregations affiliated with the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship CBF Women are enrolling in Baptist seminaries at almost equal rates as men and CBF identifies the equal leadership of women as a core component of its collective identity yet only five percent of CBF congregations employ women as solo senior pastors Preacher Woman explores how congregations can be committed to ideas of gender parity while still falling short in practice Lauve Moon investigates how institutional sexism is upheld through both unconscious and conscious biases In doing so she demonstrates that addressing issues of sexism and gender inequality within organizations must extend beyond good intentions and inclusive policies

The Unsung Heart of Black America Dona L. Irvin,1992 Most people are familiar with such African Americans as Sojourner Truth Booker T Washington or Martin Luther King Jr at one end of the spectrum and with sharecroppers lynch victims or underprivileged families at the other Somewhere between the two is the unsung middle class that quietly makes a difference in the quality of life for individual communities and for all black Americans In The Unsung Heart of Black America Dona Irvin gives voice to this uncelebrated multitude with biographical glimpses into the lives of forty members of the Downs Memorial United Methodist Church in the post World War II San Francisco Bay area Strengthened by the bond of the church these people struggled to make their world a better place through political campaigns a tutorial program for public school students and a counseling program wherein professionals offered service to less fortunate members of the community The forty people profiled here show a strongly developed sense of mission and a willingness to implement change The group includes the first black mayor of a California city the head of a social services department in a California county an Alameda County Superior Court judge and a woman who was superintendent of public schools in Oakland and Chicago The experiences of the Downs community provide emphatic evidence of the importance of the black church in our society The Unsung Heart of Black America shows the ambitions successes and frustrations of the forty members of Downs church as they strived to make a substantial contribution to the quality of American life Alliance News ,1875
