KoreAm Journal ,2006 Critical Times Derwent May,2001 A comprehensive and entertaining history of theTimes Literary Supplement this text is not only a biography of an institution but it is a reflection of the changes in British literature and culture throughout the 20th century From its first tenuous year in 1902 to its modern day incarnation theTimes Literary Supplementhas been home to an astonishing assemblage of outstanding writers This work also reveals for the first time the identities of the journal s anonymous reviewers since 1902 a tradition which lasted until 1974 Derwent May formerly of the TLS himself also examines the ethos and aims of the paper s editors management and staff and the controversies quarrels and relations between writers and critics The New Statesman and Nation ,1932 Sportswomen at the Olympics ,2010-01-01 Do the global sports media continue to ignore and downplay female sporting success or is this invisibility changing Does the world s largest media event the Olympic Games which places sport at the centre of world attention also represent a media showcase for the achievements of female athletes This is the main focus of this book It explores women s printed media coverage during the 2004 Olympic Games and brings together the largest quantitative collection of content analyses of media coverage of a single event using the same methodology Expanding beyond research centred on the English speaking world it includes analyses of newspapers published in 14 languages and research teams from 18 countries including Norway Denmark Sweden United Kingdom France Belgium Germany Spain the Czech Republic Hungary Canada the United States of America Turkey China Japan South Korea South Africa and New Zealand Based on comparative analyses the book provides a current picture of the place of sportswomen in global media The comparative approach further informs and demonstrates how the methodology of content analysis can be used on printed media texts and its strengths and limitations when used across borders of language culture and nation With contributions from across Europe Asia Africa North America and Oceania Sportswomen at the Olympics A Global Content Analysis of Newspaper Coverage provides evidence of the ongoing gendered difference in sports media coverage and shows how media may play a global role in the transformation and reproduction of gender structures in sports Artbibliographies Modern ,1993 Abstracts of journal articles books essays exhibition catalogs dissertations and exhibition reviews The scope of ARTbibliographies Modern extends from artists and movements beginning with Impressionism in the late 19th century up to the most recent works and trends in the late 20th century Photography is covered from its invention in 1839 to the present A particular emphasis is placed upon adding new and lesser known artists and on the coverage of foreign language literature Approximately 13 000 new entries are added each year Published with title LOMA from 1969 1971 The Thematic Evolution of Sports Journalism's Narrative of Mental Illness Ronald Bishop,2023-03-24 In The Thematic Evolution of Sports Journalism s Narrative of Mental Illness A Little Less Conversation Ronald Bishop contends that the conversation developed and sustained by sports journalists about professional athletes experience with mental illness has evolved through three slightly overlapping stages each marked by a primary theme During the first stage from the end of the 19th Century to the middle of the 20th century sports journalists sensationalized the experience and portrayed the athletes breathlessly labeled insane as tragic figures During the roughly two decade second stage an athlete s experience with mental illness was portrayed as an inconvenience that flummoxed and infuriated team officials who had neither the ability nor the inclination to address the issue The final stage leading up to present day and beyond is most notable for the development and widespread adoption of a coverage template that centers around an athlete s brave decision to reveal and discuss their experiences Combining historical research and narrative analysis Bishop interrogates whether sports journalists have finally begun to cover the experience of mental illness with sufficient depth Scholars of media studies journalism celebrity studies and sports psychology will find this book of particular interest The Aeroplane ,1917 The Country Gentleman ,1909 The Aeroplane and Astronautics ,1917
