10. What is the primary purpose of the following statement?

ANSWER

Most countries have given the go-ahead and are likely soon to begin developing their own space programs, says a recent report by the U.S.
National Research Council. The report, which was prepared for the National Science Foundation, says that the U.S. should maintain its lead in space exploration and that it should continue to develop its space program in a way that is consistent with its long-term national goals.
