The Starving Empire Yan Slobodkin, 2023-11-15 The Starving Empire traces the history of famine in the modern French Empire showing that hunger is intensely local and sweepingly global shaped by regional contexts and the transnational interplay of ideas and policies all at once By integrating food crises in Algeria West and Equatorial Africa and Vietnam into a broader story of imperial and transnational care Yan Slobodkin reveals how the French colonial state and an emerging international community took increasing responsibility for subsistence but ultimately failed to fulfill this responsibility Europeans once dismissed colonial famines as acts of god misfortunes of nature and the inevitable consequences of backward races living in harsh environments But as Slobodkin recounts drawing on archival research from four continents the twentieth century saw transformations in nutrition scientific racism and international humanitarianism that profoundly altered ideas of what colonialism could accomplish A new confidence in the ability to mitigate hunger coupled with new norms of moral responsibility marked a turning point in the French Empire's relationship to colonial subjects and to nature itself Increasingly sophisticated understandings of famine as a technical problem subject to state control saddled France with untenable obligations The Starving Empire not only illustrates how the painful history of colonial famine remains with us in our current understandings of public health state sovereignty and international aid but also seeks to return food this most basic of human needs to its central place in the formation of modern political obligation and humanitarian ethics History of Humanity: The twentieth century Sigfried J. de Laet, Ahmad Hasan Dani, José Luis Lorenzo, R. B. Nunoo, 1994 The Rise and Fall of Modern Empires, Volume II Saul Dubow, 2016-12-05 This volume reproduces key historical texts concerning colonial knowledges The use of the adjective colonial indicates that knowledge is shaped by power relationships while the use of the plural form knowledges indicates the emphasis in this collection is on an interplay between different often competing cognitive systems George Balandier's notion of the colonial situation is an organising principle that runs throughout the volume and there are four sub themes language and texts categorical knowledge the circulation of knowledge and indigenous knowledge The volume is designed to introduce students to a range of important interventions which speak to each other today even if they were not intended to do so when first published An introductory essay links the themes together and explains the significance of the individual articles    British Medical Journal ,1892    Public Health and Community Medicine for the Allied Medical Professions Lloyd Edward Burton,Hugh Hollingsworth Smith,1975    The Vienna Medical School of the 19th Century Erna Lesky,1976    International Record of Medicine and General Practice Clinics Edward Swift Dunster,James Bradbridge Hunter,Frank Pierce Foster,Charles Eucharist de Medicis Sajous,Gregory Stragnell,Henry J.
