Mem Fox

Early Life

Mem Fox, one of Australia's most famous authors, was born in Melbourne in 1946. At the age of six months, her parents relocated to Africa where she spent the next eighteen years of her life. Growing up in Africa, Mem developed a love of writing. She recalls learning to write by tracing letters in the red dirt at school, making her own picture books at home with staples and sticky tape, as well as writing letters to her family back in Australia. Mem grew up in a house filled with books and says she was destined to love literature.

Early Career

At age 19, Mem moved to England for three years where she attended drama school. This experience helped develop Mem's understanding of literature as she studied poetry and performed classic Shakespearean plays. In 1970, after marrying her husband Malcom Fox, Mem returned to Australia and gave birth to her daughter, Chloe Fox.

Success as an Author

In her early thirties, Mem attended Flinders University where she studied children's literature. Chloe loved books and Mem saw this as an opportunity to expand her own knowledge of children's literature so she could share this with her daughter. She did not know that during this time at university, she was writing the first draft of her most famous text, Pussycat Magic. The book was rejected nine times by publishers before it was published. Over 10 million copies were sold and it became the best selling
