Differentiation for Gifted Learners Diane Heacox, Richard M. Cash, 2020-10-21 Revised and updated edition helps educators increase rigor and depth for all advanced and gifted learners to fulfill their potential. With increasing numbers of students receiving gifted services every year it's more important than ever for differentiated instruction to go beyond adjusting content levels, task complexity or product choice. It must truly challenge and support learners on all levels academic, social and emotional. This award winning resource in the field of gifted education has been revised and updated to include a discussion of underserved learners particularly English language learners, students with autism spectrum disorder (ASD) and economically disadvantaged students. Updated information on learning standards, MTSS and universal screening, new guidelines for honors courses, a focus on scholarly questioning, ethics and empathy, a novel new strategy to increase curricular depth and complexity, information on learning orientations, new research on neurological differences of gifted learners, the pros and cons of co-teaching and how to assess its progress, new tools to increase achievement plus a discussion of underlearning, the benefits of coaching and lesson study, the authors perspectives on and guidelines for grading.
