The Game Needs to Change Patrick Prax, Clayton Whittle, Trevin York, 2025-11-17 This book shows how games can play their part in addressing climate change and how we can sustainably make games for sustainability Based on both industry practice and research the chapters within this book give voice to those who are working on sustainability in and through gaming From the ways we make games to the ways we design them to resonate with players these perspectives offer pragmatic recommendations and concrete starting points for working toward sustainability showing you how to get started no matter your role Divided into four sections the first section covers systemic approaches to this work covering how change can occur at all levels of scale Section 2 explores how stories are told toward sustainable futures across organized communities emerging markets journalism and more Section 3 critically examines ways of integrating sustainability messaging into games with practical reflections from developers and researchers on the challenges and strategies unique to this context Finally Section 4 highlights individuals who bring theory into action with personal stories demonstrating what it means to be a game developer dedicated to sustainability This book will appeal to game makers who want to address sustainability through the content and message of their creative work as well as to members of the wider game industry working toward more sustainable practices including representatives of industry organizations publishers platforms and policymakers It will also be of interest to game design and development researchers academics and students eager to learn more about integrating sustainability into both processes and outcomes

Arts Management Carla Stalling Walter, 2025-12-31 Providing a comprehensive introduction to arts and cultural management this textbook incorporates new insights from technological innovations such as artificial intelligence AI to its popular practical approach to helping learners understand how to build and grow an arts organization With practical case studies throughout this book also includes coverage of key contemporary topics such as diversity equity sustainability inclusion and access to the arts This new edition retains the valuable array of interdisciplinary insights while enhancing the focus on culturepreneurs in the age of AI The result is a book which will be core reading for many learners of arts and cultural management around the world

Your Data Will Be Used Against You Andrew Guthrie Ferguson, 2026-03-17 Interrogates how digital self surveillance can be turned against us by police prosecutors and political whims For consumers living in a digitally connected world smart technologies have built an inescapable trap of digital self surveillance Smart cars smart homes smart watches and smart medical devices track our most private activities and intimate patterns While these devices allow users to receive personal insights by monitoring their every move that data can be accessed by police and prosecutors looking to find incriminating clues Digital technology exposes everyone everywhere all at once and we have few laws to regulate it In Your Data Will Be Used Against You Andrew Guthrie Ferguson warns us of how the rise of sensor driven technology social media monitoring and artificial intelligence can be weaponized against democratic values and personal freedoms At the same time that data will solve crimes radically transforming how criminal cases are prosecuted Ferguson explores how this proliferation of private data in combination with public surveillance networks promises new ways to solve previously unsolvable crimes but also leaves us vulnerable to governmental overreach and abuse He argues for legal interventions that address the threat of digital self surveillance and provides concrete suggestions about how legislators judges and communities should respond As consumers citizens and potential subjects of surveillance the questions in this book must be confronted now before the trap of surveillance captures us completely Providing a stark warning of the dangers of digital self surveillance Your Data Will be Used Against You is a defense of civil liberties against the growing threat of data driven policing Maker Literacies and Maker Identities in the Digital Age Cheryl A. McLean, Jennifer Rowsell, 2020-11-18 This book explores making in the school curriculum in a period in which the ability to create and respond to digital artifacts is key and focuses on makerspaces in educational settings Combining the arts with design to give a fuller picture of the engagement and wonder that unfolds with maker literacies the book moves across such settings and themes as Creativity and writing in classrooms Making and developing civic engagement Emotional experiences of making Race and gender in makerspace Game based play and coding in schools and draws its case studies from the Netherlands Finland Canada Australia the United Kingdom and the United States Giving as broad a perspective on makerspaces making and design as possible the book will help scholars expand their understandings and help educators appreciate the power and worth of making to inspire students It is useful for anyone hoping to apply design maker and makerspace approaches to their teaching and learning Who's who in Engineering John W. edited anthology offers a collection of essays that each look at various types of wayfinding Together they explore a variety of wayfinding tools and techniques and their applications as well as ways of keeping track of the construction of worlds too With transmedial worlds extending over multiple media multiple authors and sometimes even multiple decades of creation a wealth of different issues can arise worlds need to direct audience members into how to organize them conceptually Edited by Mark J P Wolf and featuring contributions from a distinguished set of authors from interdisciplinary backgrounds this book enriches the theory history and practice of world building through the exploration of navigation The essays have many overlapping concerns and together they provide the reader with a range of discussions regarding wayfinding and the many ways it intersects with world building and world experiencing activities Thus rather than just analyzing worlds themselves the anthology also asks the reader to consider analyzing the act of world building itself This collection will be of interest to
