Modelling Accelerated Proficiency in Organisations Dr Raman K Attri, 2022-05-31 This book presents a research thesis of a large scale study conducted with over 50 large organizations in 7 countries with 80 business leaders to understand how businesses speed up the proficiency of their employees to meet business challenges. The book describes a start to end research study that explored the concept of accelerated proficiency of employees in organizations. The book is organized into five chapters. The book introduces the concept of accelerated proficiency in a business context in light of reviews of four decades of classic studies. The research methodology to identify sources, recruit participants, and the mechanism to collect as well as analyze data have been explained in detail. The book reveals six business practices implemented by organizations across the board that seem to make a major impact in shortening the time to proficiency of employees. Important observations and findings have been discussed as implications in regards to how organizations orchestrated six business practices as an input output feedback system to reduce the time to proficiency of the workforce. The book briefly explains how these six practices were implemented through a set of twenty four strategies in various contexts.
