A New Method ... Adapted to the Italian Heinrich Godefroy Ollendorff,1846    A New Method of Learning to Read, Write and Speak the Spanish Language ... Mariano Velazquez de la Cadena,T. Simonné,1869    Postclassicisms The

Postclassicisms Collective,2019-12-27 Made up of nine prominent scholars The Postclassicisms Collective aims to map a space for theorizing and reflecting on the values attributed to antiquity The product of these reflections Postclassicisms takes up a set of questions about what it means to know and care about Greco Roman antiquity in our turbulent world and offers suggestions for a discipline in transformation as new communities are being built around the study of the ancient Greco Roman world Structured around three primary concepts value time and responsibility and nine additional concepts

Postclassicisms asks scholars to reflect upon why they choose to work in classics to examine how proximity to and distance from antiquity has been and continues to be figured and to consider what they seek to accomplish within their own scholarly practices Together the authors argue that a stronger critical self awareness an enhanced sense of the intellectual history of the methods of classics and a greater understanding of the ethical and political implications of the decisions that the discipline makes will lead to a more engaged intellectual life both for classicists and ultimately for society A timely intervention into the present and future of the discipline Postclassicisms will be required reading for professional classicists and students alike and a model for collaborative disciplinary intervention by scholars in other fields

The History of Greece from Its Commencement to the Close of the Independence of the Greek Nation: Up to the end of the 6th century B.C Adolf Holm,1894    Virginia Woolf and the Visible World Emily Dalgarno,2007-02 In Virginia Woolf and the Visible World Emily Dalgarno examines Woolf s engagement with notions of the subject and codes of the visible Dalgarno examines how Woolf s writing engages with visible and non visible realms of experience and draws on ideas from the diverse fields of psychoanalytic theory classical Greek tragedy astronomy photography and photojournalism The solar eclipse of 1927 marks a dividing line in Woolf s career after which she portrayed the visible world in terms of light and shifted her interest from painting to photography Dalgarno offers textual analyses of Woolf s individual works including To the Lighthouse The Waves and Three Guineas arguing for the importance of her ongoing interest in Greek translation In later chapters she explores the theory of the subject that emerges from Woolf s representation of the visible in her autobiography
