Paintings Of California:

Paintings of California Arnold Skolnick,1997 A collection of paintings by various artists that were inspired by the landscapes seascapes and cityscapes of California California Light: A Century of Landscapes Jean Stern,Molly Siple,2011-04-12 A first of its kind celebration of the California Art Club a society whose members have for one hundred years captured California s staggeringly beautiful landscapes in resplendent plein air paintings At the dawn of the twentieth century California became home to artists from all over America and Europe who aspired to depict the state s awe inspiring natural landscapes on canvas In 1909 these artists founded the California Art Club which stands today as one of the most esteemed painting societies in the United States The club has achieved distinction for its commitment to plein air painting an Impressionistic style in which painters work outdoors in order to capture the ephemeral moment when the natural lighting of a landscape elevates an already beautiful scene into something sublime Celebrating a century of unique artwork this volume presents impeccable images of the art club s masterworks including unforgettable paintings of California s stunning and varied beauty desert vistas plunging coastlines verdant vineyards charming towns and snow topped mountains If Pictures Could Talk James L. Coran,Walter A. Nelson-Rees,1989 Painting California Jean Stern,Molly Siple,2017-10-03

Not-So-Still Life Susan Landauer,William H. Gerdts,Patricia Trenton,2003-11-10 Presenting interpreting and celebrating the world renowned and the lesser known California artists who have uniquely defined and redefined the still life this volume offers an exploration of the sensual pleasures the aesthetic challenges and the intellectual and perceptual associations of a century of art through the prism of a single genre BOOK JACKET California Impressionists Susan Landauer,Irvine Museum,Georgia Museum of Art,Atlanta Committee for the Olympic Games,1996 The years around the turn of the century were a dynamic time in American art. Different and seemingly contradictory movements were evolving and the dominant style that emerged during this period was Impressionism. Based in part on the broken brushwork and high keyed palette of Claude Monet, it was a form especially suited to the dramatic landscape and shimmering light of California. American Impressionism grew in popularity as artists from across the nation migrated to the Golden State. There they created a remarkable style often referred to as California plein air painting, combining several aspects of American and European art and capturing the brilliant mix of color and light that defined California. This book celebrates forty Impressionist painters who worked in California from 1900 through the beginning of the Great Depression. A joint effort of The Irvine Museum and the Georgia Museum of Art, it includes widely recognized California artists such as Maurice Braun and Guy Rose, less well known artists such as Mary DeNeale Morgan and Donna Schuster, and eastern painters who worked briefly in the region such as Childe Hassam and William Merritt Chase. The contributors' essays examine the socioeconomic forces that shaped this art movement as well as the ways in which the art reflected California's self cultivated image as a healthful sun splashed arcadia. Beautifully illustrated with 72 full color plates, California Impressionists recreates the vibrant splendor of a unique period in American art. From Frontier to Fire University of California, Davis Art Gallery, 1964 California Art Nancy Dustin Wall Moure, 1998 Fifteen and Fifty University of California, Davis Art Gallery, 1965 Palette of Light Irvine Museum, 1995

On the Edge of America Paul J. Karlstrom, 1996-01-01. The past quarter century has witnessed the emergence of a scholarly appreciation of American art in California. Yet assessments of the early modern pre 1950 have been haphazard. Now in one bold volume these scholars have remedied that deficiency. Thanks to the rich essays of this wonderful book, the art history of California and the nation is graced with further light. Dr. Kevin Starr, State Librarian of California. The authors of these essays illuminate a diverse and compelling history one in which what happened at the geographic edges sheds new light on the European points of originality. A lively and valuable contribution not just to regional history but to the making and transmission of modernism. Whitney Chadwick, Professor of Art History, San Francisco State University. A welcome and overdue evaluation of the distinctive history of modernism in California, these essays sensitively explore a cultural terrain at once familiar and strange, surveying memorable achievements from painting to photography to architecture and film. The authors provocatively suggest the centrality of edges wherever they are found to the national tale and demonstrate it through significant developments on our western margin. A must for any serious student of American art and culture. Charles C. Eldredge, The University of Kansas. An engrossing examination of modernist practices in California before the Abstract Expressionists and beatniks came to town. It includes art scenes peopled by Mexican muralists, European artists in exile, third generation Californians, idealist photographers and immigrant artisans. Wanda Corn, Professor of Art History, Stanford University. These fascinating essays do much more than fill a major gap in our understanding of American regionalism. Their scope is superb because of the inclusive range of their definition of art, the varied ethnicities of the artists discussed and the
