ELA Middle Grades Reading Comprehension & Writing

A composite image featuring a basketball in the foreground, a magazine spread for 'Ice Hockey' in the middle ground, and a large '6th-8th Grade Differentiated!' text overlay in the foreground.

A template for a basketball-themed poetry writing activity. The main title 'Basketball' is at the top in a large, cursive font. Below it is a box containing the words 'POETRY' and 'WRITING' in bold, uppercase letters. A large, textured basketball is on the right. Below the title, a writing prompt asks students to write a poem about basketball in poetic form, mentioning the sport and its history. At the bottom, there are two examples of the template: one with a green background and one with an orange background, both showing a writing area and a small portrait of a person.

Paired Text For Middle School:

Text Sets Joanne Kilgour Dowdy, Rachael Fleischaker, 2018-07-17 Text Sets Multimodal Learning for Multicultural Students integrates a multicultural approach to teaching with standards based instruction and multimodal learning opportunities in a variety of content areas. This unique combination allows teachers to meet the demands of their curriculum while recognizing and honoring the diverse students in their classroom. Each chapter provides an annotated text set with a specific theme, curricular goals and instructional activities that suggest ways for students to interact with the texts. In addition to providing ready made text sets, it models a framework for teachers to build their own text sets based on the individual needs of their schools and communities. Handbook of Research on Teaching Diverse Youth Literature to Pre-Service Professionals Hartsfield, Danielle E., 2021-06-25 Perspectives and identity are typically reinforced at a young age giving teachers the responsibility of selecting reading material that could potentially change how the child sees the world. This is the importance of sharing diverse literature with today's children and young adults which introduces them to texts that deal with religion, gender identities, racial identities, socioeconomic conditions, etc. Teachers and librarians play significant roles in placing diverse books in the hands of young readers. However, to achieve the goal of increasing young people's access to diverse books, educators and librarians must receive quality instruction on this topic within their university preparation programs. The Handbook of Research on Teaching Diverse Youth Literature to Pre-Service Professionals is a comprehensive reference source that curates promising practices that teachers and librarians are currently applying to prepare aspiring teachers and librarians for sharing and teaching diverse youth literature. Given the importance of sharing diverse books with today's young people, university educators must be aware of engaging and effective methods for teaching diverse literature to pre-service teachers and librarians. Covering topics such as syllabus development, diversity, social justice, and activity planning, this text is essential for university level teacher educators, library educators, who prepare pre-service teachers and librarians, university educators, faculty, adjunct instructors, researchers, and students. Connecting Disciplinary Literacy and Digital Storytelling in K-12 Education Haas, Leslie, Tussey, Jill, 2021-01-15 The idea of storytelling goes beyond the borders of language, culture, or traditional education and has historically been a tie that bonds families, communities, and nations. Digital storytelling offers opportunities for authentic academic and non-academic literacy learning across a multitude of genres. It is easily accessible to most members of society and has the potential to transform the boundaries of traditional education. As concepts around traditional literacy education evolve and become more culturally and linguistically relevant and responsive, the connections between digital storytelling and disciplinary literacy warrant considered exploration. Connecting Disciplinary Literacy and Digital Storytelling in K-12 Education develops a conceptual framework around pedagogical connections to digital storytelling within K-12 disciplinary literacy practices. This essential reference book supports student success through the integration of digital storytelling across content areas and grade levels. Covering topics
