c't Working with AI c't-Redaktion, 2024-01-24 The special issue of c't KI Praxis provides tests and practical instructions for working with chatbots. It explains why language models make mistakes and how they can be minimised. This not only helps when you send questions and orders to one of the chatbots offered online. If you do not want to or are not allowed to use the cloud services for data protection reasons for example you can also set up your own voice AI. The c't editorial team explains where to find a suitable voice model how to host it locally and which service providers can host it. The fact that generative AI is becoming increasingly productive harbours both opportunities and risks. Suitable rules for the use of AI in schools training and at work help to exploit opportunities and minimise risks.

Second Language Acquisition Abroad Lynne Hansen, 2012 This volume brings together for the first time a collection of studies devoted to missionary language learning and retention. Introductory chapters provide historical perspectives on this population and on language teaching philosophy and practice in the LDS tradition. The empirical studies which follow are divided into two sections the first examining mission language acquisition by English speaking missionaries abroad the second focusing on post mission language attrition These chapters by internationally known scholars offer cutting edge research using a number of different target languages in addressing various issues in second language development Finally a comprehensive bibliography of sources on mission languages is included The readership of this pioneering work is expected to extend beyond specialists in study abroad and missionary language training to a broader audience of applied linguists educators and students interested in language acquisition and attrition In addition the book offers useful insights to adults who want to maintain a second language
