Organization and Governance in Higher Education Jason Lane, Eboni Zamani-Gallaher, 2010 Organization and Governance in Higher Education is one of the primary teaching and research references in the study and practice of post secondary education Research in higher education has provided new insights and recommendations for the management of postsecondary institutions In addition to maintaining the strength and integrity of prior readers by continuing the coverage of classical theories and traditional models the Fifth Edition provides updated reading to broaden the scope of the reader New selections include current perspective on campus governance and institutional change Because of the complex nature of the postsecondary institution this reader creates eight subject area lenses Each lens allows the reader to engage the specific paradigms and phenomena related to that aspect of higher education c From publisher s description The Politics of Faculty Unionization Gordon B. Arnold, 2000-09-30 Faculty unions are an important part of the current higher education landscape particularly in the public sector Yet the rise of unionism among university faculties during the 1960 s and 1970 s was an unexpected development that clashed with many assumptions about academic life Amid campus tensions economic crisis and state political controversies the faculties of the Universities of Connecticut Massachusetts and Rhode Island were among those joining ranks of organized labor during that era This book follows the documentary record of faculty unionization at these New England universities to explore how and why unionization came about As the book reveals faculty unionization can be much more than the simple result of local controversies When examined in light of the surrounding political and economic environment a complex picture emerges On these New England campuses the process invoked the participation of many actors Faculties administrations boards state political leaders and national associations all played a part in shaping the course of events sometimes in unexpected and unintended ways Gordon B Arnold places these events in context providing a 35 year overview of faculty unionism and locating faculty unionization within the broader realm of organized labor and the rise of public sector collective bargaining

ASHE Reader on Planning and Institutional Research Marvin W. Peterson, Association for the Study of Higher Education, 1999 This reader is designed for higher education programs and for institutions with planning and or institutional research offices or staff that have a need for professional training and development The articles in the reader were selected from a diverse range of sources that represent a wealth of well know and respected scholars and practitioners in the field Most of the selections were chosen for their significance as research based conceptual or synthesis literature The reader's editors have provided a well rounded coverage which reflects the broad current models and approaches to planning and the roles of institutional research In addition an extensive and up to date Other Resources section includes Related Higher Education Reference Books and Related Publication as well as descriptions of relevant Data Base Resources Periodic Data Reports and Related Professional Associations Features include Offers comprehensive coverage in the field of planning and institutional research Addresses significant and substantive issues Presents a well focused overview on planning and instructional research in the introduction Contains useful selections for in service and professional development Selections were chosen through an extensive literature search and review primarily from higher education literature Provides extensive information on other related resources Includes a special section on Using the Internet

The State of the African American Male Eboni M. Zamani-Gallaher, Vernon C. Polite, 2010-04 The circumstances affecting many African American males in schools and society remain complex and problematic high rates of school violence and suspensions overrepresentation in special education classes poor access to higher education high incidence of crime and incarceration gender and masculine identity issues and HIV AIDS and other health crises The essays gathered here focus on these issues as they exist for males in grades K 12 and postsecondary education in Michigan However the authors intend their analyses and policy recommendations to apply to African American males nationally
