One Moment In Time Moment Of Truth:

Crosslinguistic Views on Tense, Aspect and Modality Bart Hollebrandse, Angeliek van Hout, Co Vet, 2005 This Cahiers Chronos volume reports on new and ongoing research on tense aspect and modality in which a variety of languages has been gathered. The languages discussed by the authors include in alphabetical order: Brazilian Portuguese, Chinese, Dutch, English, French, German, Greek, Italian, Japanese, Polish, Russian, and Spanish. The articles form a selection of the papers presented at the 5th Chronos Conference that took place at the University of Groningen, the Netherlands, in June 2002. We have categorized the papers into three sections: Tense, Aspect and Modality. Obviously this ordering is somewhat arbitrary given that some of the papers cross these rather rigid boundaries as they discuss the interplay of tense and aspect or tense and modality. This book is of interest for scholars in the field of semantics, logic, syntax and comparative linguistics. A

Cunningham Horace Walpole, 1891 Human Thought Joseph Mendola, 1997-02-28 Mendola spends little time distinguishing human thought from horse sense and any possible ruminations of other creatures. Nor does he acknowledge an distinction between conscious experience and thought content. He develops a theory of content for human thought that delineates the things human can think constructs an account of the realization of such thought explains how thoughts with such a range of context might be constituted and how there might be people with such thoughts and argues that no coherent and humanly conceivable account of the realization of our thought is plausible because we cannot plausibly explain our experience. He concludes that how we think we think what we think is not how we do in fact think we think.
