Play Among Books Miro Roman, Alice_ch3n81, 2021-12-06 How does coding change the way we think about architecture

This question opens up an important research perspective In this book Miro Roman and his AI Alice_ch3n81 develop a playful scenario in which they propose coding as the new literacy of information They convey knowledge in the form of a project model that links the fields of architecture and information through two interwoven narrative strands in an infinite flow of real books Focusing on the intersection of information technology and architectural formulation the authors create an evolving intellectual reflection on digital architecture and computer science Against Usury Robert Van de Weyer, 2010-01-21

Robert Van de Weyer argues that humanity faces a trio of chronic crises economic ecological and in the provision of welfare services whose causes are various connected forms of usury Following the religious teaching of Christianity and Islam which have traditionally condemned usury as the fundamental source of social injustice he defines usury as the unequal allocation of risk He offers practical proposals as to how usury may be reduced or eliminated showing that the solution to each crisis depends on solving the others
