The Speaker's Handbook Jo Sprague, Douglas Stuart, 2005 This text is a reference guide for the individual speaker and textbook for use in the public speaking course It covers the issues one commonly confronts in preparing and delivering a speech Pref The Art of Persuasive Communication Johann C. De Wet, 2009-12 This third edition situates contemporary persuasive practices against the background of the rich history of rhetoric and within the setting of a democratic state The work is theoretically well grounded and considerate of the practical dimensions of persuasion from its broad starting points in an interpersonal setting to its manifestation as mass persuasion or propaganda in the wider political sphere Contemporary examples including rhetorical discourses of South African statesmen are provided to facilitate understanding Throughout the author addresses critical issues that are important to communication science scholars and practitioners as well as those active in related disciplines such as political science sociology social psychology and rhetorical studies In fact the book should be helpful to potential persuaders and persuadees across the broad spectrum of society as it will give persuadees a better chance to identify persuasion and defend themselves against the unscrupulous The Art of Persuasion Juliet

Erickson, 2005-08-01 You may think you know what you want in life but having the idea the goal the means the business plan or the enthusiasm will only get you halfway there Whatever it is that you want to make happen whether a new business community project or innovative idea the one crucial factor by which it will stand or fall is how well you can communicate it to others This invaluable book explains just why good communication is so critical and reveals the secrets of honing your skills to ensure your goal is realised From planning your initiative to making an effective pitch when the stakes are high international communication coach Juliet Erickson presents the best insights and techniques of persuasive communication that are essential to really make your great ideas happen Adapting Health

Communication to Cultural Needs Piet Swanepoel, Hans Hoeken, 2008 The question of what constitutes effective health communication has been addressed mainly by scholars working in American and European cultural contexts Many people who could benefit most from effective health communication however come from different cultures A prime example is the threat posed by HIV AIDS to the people of South Africa Although it is generally acknowledged that health communication needs to be tailored to the target audience's characteristics with cultural background being one of the most salient ones little research has been done on how to achieve this In this book we bring together leading scholars in the field of health communication as well as communication scholars from South Africa As such it can serve as an example of the promises and the limitations of general health communication theories to local praxis as well as provide guidelines for the development of better health communication in South Africa Effective Small Group and Team Communication Judith Davis Hoover, Judith Hoover, 2005 EFFECTIVE SMALL GROUP AND TEAM COMMUNICATION presents original research based upon the experiences of functioning groups The text emphasizes an interactive approach to teaching small group communication and contains activities that tie into each chapter Chapters on both face to face and virtual meetings are guided by a teamwork philosophy that encourages the use of shared emergent leadership in classroom groups

Communicating with Credibility and Confidence Gay Lumsden, Donald L. Lumsden, 2002-08 This edition is designed to increase students confidence and credibility in communicating in a range of communication situations The text integrates and applies the principles of effective communication common in all contexts by first developing the basic skills common to every type of oral communication and then showing how to adapt these skills to each type of interaction culminating in effective presentation of formal speeches Ethics adaptation diversity and critical and creative thinking are common threads throughout all discussions which include well developed coverage of theory and research findings and skill building exercises and activities designed for individual dyadic and group work

The Art of Persuasive Communication Richard Storey, 1997 Richard Storey's ground breaking book reveals the secrets of successful persuaders In it he sets out the principles governing the influencing process and looks at a range of situations in which we apply them He identifies four main personality types and shows which communication styles work best for each With examples exercises and checklists and separate chapters on writing telephoning and presentation his book provides a comprehensive guide to persuading people to do what you want them to The Art of Persuasive Communication is described by the author as a do it yourself influencing kit designed to help you find the techniques that work for you

The Rhetorical Act Karlyn Kohrs Campbell, Susan Schultz Huxman, 2003 THE RHETORICAL ACT THINKING SPEAKING AND WRITING CRITICALLY Third Edition teaches liberal arts students how to craft and critique rhetorical messages that influence The text is a compelling invitation to students of Communication and Language Arts to become articulate rhetors and critics of their symbolic universe Consistent with the first two editions the third edition takes as its starting point a traditional humanistic approach to rhetoric The book reaffirms the ancient Aristotelian and Ciceronian relationships between art and practice that you cannot master rhetorical skills without an understanding of the theory on which such skills are based THE RHETORICAL ACT Third Edition departs from traditional textbooks in several ways It treats rhetorical action as the joint effort of rhetor and audience emphasizing the audience's active collaborative role Students will encounter critical models for recognizing the opportunities and constraints of rhetorical action This book will help your students become discerning speakers and critics who can assess situations conceive rhetorical possibilities examine and produce actual rhetorical messages and compare their efforts and those of fellow students to the discourse of journalists politicians advertisers and other public persuaders

Persuasive Communication Sigler, 1753

Gendered Lives Julia T. Wood, 2003 Written by the leading gender communication scholar this text introduces students to theories research and pragmatic information that demonstrates the multiple often interactive ways in which our views of masculinity and femininity are shaped within contemporary culture
