Measuring Second Language Pragmatic Competence Rod Ellis, Carsten Roever, Natsuko Shintani, Yan Zhu, 2024-03-12 Taking a psycholinguistic perspective this book investigates how second language L2 learners pragmatic abilities in English can be measured It complements and extends earlier work on the testing of implicit and explicit grammar The authors present a set of tests they developed using both well established methods of measuring pragmatic knowledge e.g. a Metapragmatic Knowledge Test and role plays and more original tests e.g. an Irony Test and an Elicited Imitation Test. They explain the development of the tests and report the results of their work with native speakers of English and Chinese and Japanese L2 learners. A confirmatory factor analysis lends support to the theoretical basis of the tests. The authors also report studies that explored the use of the tests to investigate L2 linguistic proficiency study abroad and formal instruction. In concluding they consider the strengths and limitations of the tests and propose some directions for future research.

Working Memory and Second Language Learning Zhisheng (Edward) Wen, 2016-06-06

This book introduces an approach to understanding and measuring working memory components and functions in second language learning, processing and development. It presents comprehensive, thorough and updated reviews of relevant literatures from cognitive sciences and applied linguistics. Drawing on multidisciplinary research, the book advocates a conceptual framework for integrating working memory theories with second language acquisition theories. An innovative theoretical model is also presented which illuminates research studies investigating the distinctive roles of phonological and executive working memory as they relate to specific L2 learning domains, skills and processes. Theoretical and methodological implications of this integrative perspective are further elaborated and discussed within the specific realms of L2 task-based performance and language aptitude research.
