Introduction to the History of the Muslim East Jean Sauvaget,1965 The Origin of Islam in Its Christian

Environment Richard Bell,1926 Controversies over Islamic Origins Mun'im Sirry,2021-06-21 What evidence do we have to reconstruct the origins of Islam On the basis of what sources can the first century of Islam be accessed Why do historians of early Islam consider the literary sources of Islamic origins to be so problematic How is the problem of early Islamic history framed This book addresses these critical questions by discussing various approaches to the problem of reconstructing Islamic origins In a spirit of welcoming diverse perspectives and encouraging healthy scholarly debate it explores different even conflicting modern theories about the emergence of Islam through various case studies including recent debates on the Qur'an the biography of the Prophet and early conquest narratives A broad spectrum of both traditionalist and revisionist scholarship is critically examined with the purpose of illuminating not only how modern scholars differ but also what they have in common

Religious Thought: Christianity, Hinduism, Buddhism, Islam Philip H. Ashby,1963 The History and Future of Religious Thought asks the imposing questions what are the vital and enduring elements in the world's greatest religions By tracing the major themes of man's most powerful religions Dr Ashby noted historian of religions shows that each of these religions has survived the challenges of attack and novelty by virtue of its ability to state its faith in terms relevant to the society in which it has flourished Now to retain their influence Dr Ashby argues the major religions confront a two fold responsibility they must become fully conscious of the theological philosophical resources which have given them strength and relevance in the past at the same time they must free themselves from provincial orientations and express their universal themes

The theological position at the close of the period of Christian ascendancy in the Near East James Windrow Sweetman,1945 Islam and Christian Theology: v. 2. The theological position at the close of the period of Christian ascendancy in the Near East (viii, 285 p.) James Windrow Sweetman,1946 Islam, Friend Or Foe? Emilio Platti,2008 In this study Emilio Platti dares to enquire directly into the compatibility between Islam and Christianity as well as between Islam and modernity He insists that the best way to answer such questions is to return to the origins of the Islamic tradition What precisely does the Qur'an have to say about Christians How can we explain the resentment towards the West that seems to characterize some Muslims Does the so called clash of civilizations have its roots in Islamic theology How did the negative portrait of Muslims that was characteristic of the Latin Middle Ages come about Is it possible to speak in a monolithic fashion about Islam Is it really the case that Muslims must set about developing a new identity What is the relationship between Islamic law and modern theories of human rights What does it mean to be a believer and might this not be the real heart of the tensions and controversies that mark so much of the contemporary encounter between Islam and the West Platti's study engages both classical and contemporary readings of the Islamic tradition and offers a nuanced and challenging view not only of its past but of its present and of the directions it might take in the years ahead
