Furor Scribendi: A Passion for Writing Arthur Asa Berger, 2024-12-03. This book is about the creative process and also offers readers insights into what it is like to be a writer. When I was young I never could have imagined the career I would have but it turns out I was afflicted by the Furor Scribendi and was to spend much of my life writing books and articles as well as writing 106 journals which I started writing in 1954. In this book I discuss my experiences with editors and publishers and also offer excerpts from the books I discuss so you can see what I write about and how I express myself. Not all my books were well received. My favorite review of my books was written about my book The TV Guided America published in the mid seventies. The reviewer who did not like my psychoanalytic and semiotic perspectives wrote Berger is to the study of television what Idi Amin is to tourism in Uganda. At that time Amin was killing thousands of people in Uganda who were against his regime. Another book was reviewed by someone who wrote How do you review a book that never should have been published? A colleague of mine at San Francisco State University once told me that my books were all unpublishable and that I only got them published because my editors were naive. When I asked him why he had never published a book he explained My books would be too good to be published. Fortunately I found any number of naive editors who published my books. My experiences as an author as reflected in my books are the subject of this
