Easy Way to Evaluate Learning Management Systems Alaa M. Momani, Embedding Librarianship in Learning Management Systems Beth E. Tumbleson, John J. Burke, 2013-06-12 Information literacy instruction is best when it is integrated into actual research and in higher education that means embedding librarianship into the learning management system LMS. This new How To Do It Manual is geared towards academic librarians already working with classes in an LMS as well as those considering how to begin a pilot. Tumbleson and Burke who surveyed 280 librarians for information on related activities also use their own first hand experience implementing an embedded librarianship program at their university to offer guidance and encouragement. Showing how to start a program that can be adapted and made sustainable they include information on Implementing a simple pilot program with a librarian and one or two faculty. Understanding and managing workload 9 tips for an effective email solicitation asking faculty to participate 10 selling points to attract students to LMS services

The ASTD E-learning Handbook Allison Rossett, 2002 The entire training industry is undergoing dramatic change as training is moved out of traditional classrooms and onto the Web. Training publications and conferences are now dominated by speakers writers and vendors talking about e Learning. The e Learning revolution is forcing companies to spend millions on new technology and new web based courseware threatening the role of traditional classroom trainers and saving companies millions of dollars in housing and travel costs because trainees no longer need a plane ticket and 3 nights accommodation to attend a corporate training program the training can be delivered to each learner's desktop over the Web. But because e Learning is still in the revolution stage there are no clear standards and models for how to create and deliver e Learning successfully. Everyone is asking the same questions how does web based training fit in with traditional classroom based training. What are the standards for designing high quality e Learning. How much interaction with an instructor do e Learning participants need. What is the role of the instructional designer in online learning. The ASTD e Learning Yearbook will be the first annual ref.
