Dear _____

Your company recently advertised on the _____ website for a _____. After reading the job description I am confident that I would be a perfect fit for your position as my skills, ability and future potential precisely match your requirements.

Without wishing to sound boastful I feel that I come to you with a background that is unique and distinctive from other applicants. I have all of the competencies required to do the job well, in particular I want to highlight my ability to _____. My other core strengths include, but are not limited to the following:

- Always representing your company in a professional manner.
- Able to work in an environment of change and challenge.
- Scheduling workloads to meet priorities and targets.

For additional information about my capabilities please view my attached resume.

Right now, I want to work for a reputable and exciting institution like yours where there will be a big stage for my talents. Therefore, I would welcome the chance of an interview, where we would be able to discuss in greater detail the value and strengths I can bring to your already successful company.

I thank you very much for your time and I eagerly look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely,

Howard Gerrard

Life After Residency Melissa T. Berhow, William W. Feaster, John G. Brock-Utne, MD, PhD, FFA(SA), 2009-04-20 Life After Residency A Career Planning Guide is an insightful step by step guide to achieving a successful and fulfilling career in medicine. As professors at Stanford University Medical Center Drs. Melissa Berhow, William Feaster, and John Brock Utne began running seminars to advise their residents not only on creating a curriculum vitae and landing a great job but also on how to manage student loan payments and avoid pitfalls in the life of a physician. The immense success and ensuing demand for more seminars eventually gave rise to Life After Residency, a book which continues the seminar discussions in greater depth and magnitude while maintaining a conversational writing style. Key topics covered include preparing for a job interview, evaluating job offers and negotiating contracts, obtaining and maintaining the proper State license, applying for membership onto Medical Staffs, obtaining malpractice insurance, buying a house and investing for eventual retirement, and pursuing non-medical career options. Loaded with sage advice and practical wisdom, Life After Residency is an invaluable asset to every resident during the transition from residency to life thereafter.
