Jury Instructions Committee.,2022 Handbook of Epistemic Cognition Jeffrey A. Greene,William A. Sandoval,Ivar Bråten,2016-01-22 The Handbook of Epistemic Cognition brings together leading work from across disciplines to provide a comprehensive overview of an increasingly important topic how people acquire understand justify change and use knowledge in formal and informal contexts Research into inquiry understanding and discovery within academic disciplines has progressed from general models of conceptual change to a focus upon the learning trajectories that lead to expert like conceptualizations skills and performance Outside of academic domains issues of who and what to believe and how to integrate multiple sources of information into coherent and useful knowledge have arisen as primary challenges of the 21st century In six sections scholars write within and across fields to focus and advance the role of epistemic cognition in education With special attention to how researchers across disciplines can communicate and collaborate more effectively this book will be an invaluable resource for anyone interested in the future of knowledge and knowing Dr Jeffrey A Greene is an associate professor of Learning Sciences and Psychological Studies in the School of Education at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Dr William A Sandoval is a professor in the division of Urban Schooling at the UCLA Graduate School of Education Information Studies Dr Ivar Br ten is a professor of Educational Psychology at the Faculty of Educational Sciences at the University of Oslo Norway    Through the Distorted Lens Fiona C. Hum,2025-11-26 This monograph analyses controversial trial outcomes both civil and criminal through a post structural feminist lens of narrative creation It considers how narratives are constructed in trials and how the admission or exclusion of evidence can lead to the formation of distorted narratives that produce flawed outcomes The book discusses contemporary evidential challenges surrounding the societal and legal framing of truth within the Anglo American trial process It applies a post structural feminist approach to examine how facts and rules are interpreted through the construction of legal stories Chapters are organised to address key themes in high profile cases from around the globe These include the cases of George Cardinal Pell Johnny Depp and Amber Heard Lawyer X Brittany Higgins and Kathleen Folbigg This book departs from previous publications such as those with a traditional feminist perspective in that it presents both sides of the distorted lens where a defendant is written into a story as both guilty and innocent Its focus on cognitive and narrative processes provides insight into the role of narratives and evidence construction in the trial process and how such processes are used by legal advocates This book would be of interest to scholars of legal psychology criminology and socio legal studies It will also interest scholars and students of Evidence law especially those studying miscarriages of justice    Password ,1996    New Serial Titles ,1997 A union list of serials commencing publication after Dec 31 1949    Recent Acquisitions Ohio State University.
