Art Theory for a Global Pluralistic Age Steven Félix-Jäger,2019-12-02 This book extends a theory of art that addresses the present era's shift towards global pluralism By focusing on extrinsic rather than intrinsic qualities of art this book helps viewers evaluate art across cultural boundaries Art can be universally classified by an evaluation of its guiding narrative and can be understood and judged through hermeneutical methods Since artists engage culture through various local transnational and emerging global narratives it is difficult to decipher what standards are used for evaluation and which authoritative body evaluates the work This book implements a narrative hermeneutical approach to properly classify an artwork and establish its meaning and value Cities Rethought Gautam Bhan,Michael Keith,Susan Parnell,Edgar

Pieterse,2024-10-30 In a world of disruptions and seemingly endless complexity cities have become central to thinking about the future of humanity Yet the study of cities is fragmented among different silos of expertise diverse genres of scholarship and widening chasms between theory and practice How can we do better Cities Rethought suggests that we need to remake the way we see and know cities in order to rethink how we act and intervene within them To this end it offers the contours of a new urban disposition Its normative analytical and operational elements offer an opportunity for scholars practitioners and citizens alike to approach the complexity of cities anew Written collectively for a wide audience the text draws from cities across the global north and south speaks across diverse genres of ideas and reflects on the lived experience of the authors as both researchers and practitioners It is an essential text for anyone committed to knowing their own cities as well as finding ways to meaningfully intervene in them Handbook of Research on Family Literacy Practices and Home-School

Connections Fox, Kathy R.,Szech, Laura E.,2022-06-24 Research has shown that families and schools that partner together improve literacy outcomes for their students Family literacy includes homework and shared book reading but goes beyond these school to home activities to encompass family generated practices These literacies include family connections around activities such as cooking play religion social and community groups Further study on the importance of the partnership between the home and school is required to implement best practices and provide students with the best possible education The Handbook of Research on Family Literacy Practices and Home School Connections seeks to understand the connections made and new information learned during the COVID 19 pandemic surrounding family literacy and shares updated practices and new perspectives on what it means to partner with families and embrace diverse family literacies in this new world The book also provides teachers perspectives on how future relationships between the school and home can be shaped through both narrative and research based chapters Covering key topics such as parenting homework and social distancing this major reference work is ideal for administrators school faculty academicians scholars practitioners instructors and students

Excellence in Teaching and Learning in Higher Education Isabel Huet, Teresa Pessoa, Fátima Sol, 2021 The initial idea for the book emerged during the seminar Sharing of Innovative Pedagogical Practices that occurred at the University of Coimbra Portugal in 2018 Like all good ideas this one originated in a conversation between colleagues from the University of Coimbra and the University of West London in the United Kingdom The idea of this book was to move away from sharing experiences related to teaching and learning in higher education in just one or two countries but instead to organise a more European view about the policy research and teaching practices that are shaping the way our students learn academics teach and do research We have a total of 16 chapters from academics in Portugal the United Kingdom Ireland Sweden the Netherlands Spain Italy and the Czech Republic The book is organised in four interrelated themes 1 policy and quality 2 professionalisation of teaching and academic development 3 research and teaching nexus and 4 pedagogy and practice Enjoy reading the book
