analyses London fiction at the millennium reading it in relation to an exploration of a theoretical positioning beyond the postmodern It explores how a selection of novels can be considered as second wave or post postmodern in light of their borrowing more from mainstream and classical genres as opposed to formally experimental avant garde techniques It considers how writers utilise the cultural capital of London in a process of relocating marginalized subjugated or under represented voices The millennium provides an apt symbolic opportunity to reflect on British fiction and to consider the direction in which contemporary authors are moving As such key novels by Martin Amis Bella Bathurst Bernardine Evaristo Mark Haddon Nick Hornby Hanif Kureishi Andrea Levy Gautam Malkani Timothy Mo Will Self Ali Smith Zadie Smith Rupert Thomson and Sarah Waters are used to explore writing beyond the postmodern In this significant and welcome contribution to the field Allen provides us with a sophisticated detailed and rigorous study of the move in contemporary fiction beyond postmodernism as exemplified by London fiction Nick Hubble Brunel University London UK Pomo Oz Niall Lucy,2010-03-01 Demonstrating how ideas are in short supply and critical thinking is under attack in the present day this unique study pits the author s brand of humor and intellect against conservative power brokers Arguing the notion that free thought not free trade is the basis of democracy these exciting and provocative essays engage with the most contentious issues of today The Sublime Today Gillian B. Pierce,2013-01-04 The Sublime Today considers contemporary applications of aesthetic philosophy and earlier theories of the sublime from Longinus Boileau Burke Kant and Hegel to current literary and cultural contexts Today aesthetic experience itself seems to be changing given the rise of new media and new conditions for the viewing and the reception of works of art How might the rhetoric of the sublime be used to both describe our current situation and help formulate constructive responses to it The Sublime Today collects the work of scholars in literature film art and media studies and provides a forum for investigating the contemporary relevance of the sublime both as it has been understood historically and as it has been formulated by more recent theorists such as Jameson Lyotard Kristeva and others The volume includes essays on literary readings of the sublime in Coetze Eggers Lahiri and Auster essays on film and the visual arts in the work of Fran ois Ozon and in recent participatory art and essays on how new technologies and media as in media representations of 9 11 re frame our relationship to the aesthetics of the sublime especially as they intersect with questions of gender the postcolonial and the uneasy politics of terror Faith in Life Donald J. in the development of ideals that challenges pessimists like Schopenhauer and Nietzsche and A non traditional reading of Hegel that invites comparison with cutting edge Continental philosophers such as Adorno Derrida and Zizek and even goes beyond them in its systematic approach In making these discoveries the author forges a new link between American and European philosophy showing how they share similar insights and concerns He also provides an original assessment of Dewey s relationship to his teacher George Sylvester Morris and to other important thinkers of the day giving us a fresh picture of John Dewey the man and the philosopher in the early years of his career Readers will find a wide range of topics discussed from Dewey s early reflections on Kant and Hegel to the nature of beauty courage sympathy hatred love and even death and despair This is a book for anyone interested in the thought of John Dewey American pragmatism Continental Philosophy or a new idealism appearing on the scene

Postmodernism Christopher Butler, 2002-10-10 Postmodernism has been a buzzword in contemporary society for the last decade. But how can it be defined? In this Very Short Introduction Christopher Butler challenges and explores the key ideas of postmodernists and their engagement with theory, literature, the visual arts, film, architecture and music. He treats artists, intellectuals, critics and social scientists as if they were all members of a loosely constituted and quarrelsome political party, a party which includes such members as Cindy Sherman, Salman Rushdie, Jacques Derrida, Walter Abish and Richard Rorty, creating a vastly entertaining framework in which to unravel the mysteries of the postmodern condition from the politicizing of museum culture to the cult of the politically correct. ABOUT THE SERIES The Very Short Introductions series from Oxford University Press contains hundreds of titles in almost every subject area. These pocket sized books are the perfect way to get ahead in a new subject quickly. Our expert authors combine facts, analysis, perspective, new ideas and enthusiasm to make interesting and challenging topics highly readable.
