Veteran Activism and the Global War on Terror M. C. Armstrong, 2024-09-05 Veteran Activism and the Global War on Terror is the first study of the literature of dissent that has emerged from the veterans of the global War on Terror Spencer Ackerman's Reign of Terror stated that The most impactful activism against the War on Terror came from within the Security State itself low ranking soldiers and intelligence contractors whose exposure to the war prompted them to expose it to the world. Veteran Activism and the Global War on Terror examines this subculture of veterans whose stories have dramatically shifted the conversation about literature and activism. Author M C Armstrong introduces and explores America's post 9 11 soldier writers a community that challenges pivotal contemporary assumptions about allegiance democracy geography solidarity and national identity. Chapters are organized around a triad of core concepts parrhesia cosmopolitanism and dissensus and discuss authors including Elliot Ackerman Kristin Beck Joseph Hickman Phil Klay Kevin Powers and Edward Snowden. Armstrong argues that this scene represents a literary movement and perhaps the most significant literary community since the Beat Generation and Veteran Activism and the Global War on Terror reads the work of these writers as the loci of a dissenting overhaul of the official narratives and rhetorical maps that chart the United States Global War on Terror.

Istanbul Letters Elliot Ackerman, 2016-10-04 A Vintage Shorts Original Selection Why do some forms of violence the beheading of journalists by the Islamic State a bombing in Ankara or the attacks in San Bernardino and Orlando make us feel so threatened while other forms the 372 separate mass shootings in America in 2015 or the 4 219 Syrians killed that same September do little to challenge our sense of safety From his base in Istanbul Elliot Ackerman has written letters and essays that explore how global and seemingly remote issues like terrorism US foreign policy and other geopolitical forces play out and wreak distress upon the quotidian lives of civilians Here assembled into a haunting piece the fragments of a year's notes open a window into life under President Recep Tayyip Erdogan's oppressive and nationalistic right wing regime the civil war in Syria and the disintegration of the old order in the Middle East Exposing how a pervasive rhetoric of fear can shape a society and written with intimacy and a tremendous amount of compassion this is an astute political commentary and first person travel narrative par excellence An ebook short

2034 Elliot Ackerman, Admiral James Stavridis, USN, 2021-03-09 An instant New York Times Bestseller Consider this another vaccine against disaster Fortunately this dose won't cause a temporary fever and it happens to be a rippling good read Wired This crisply written and well paced book reads like an all caps warning for a world shackled to the machines we carry in our pockets and place on our laps The Washington Post From two former military officers and award winning authors a chillingly authentic geopolitical thriller that imagines a naval clash between the US and China in the South China Sea in 2034 and the path from there to a nightmarish global conflagration On March 12 2034 US Navy Commodore Sarah Hunt is on the bridge of her flagship the guided missile destroyer USS John Paul Jones conducting a routine freedom of navigation patrol in the South China Sea when her ship

detects an unflagged trawler in clear distress smoke billowing from its bridge On that same day US Marine aviator Major Chris Wedge Mitchell is flying an F35E Lightning over the Strait of Hormuz testing a new stealth technology as he flirts with Iranian airspace By the end of that day Wedge will be an Iranian prisoner and Sarah Hunt s destroyer will lie at the bottom of the sea sunk by the Chinese Navy Iran and China have clearly coordinated their moves which involve the use of powerful new forms of cyber weaponry that render US ships and planes defenseless In a single day America s faith in its military s strategic pre eminence is in tatters A new terrifying era is at hand So begins a disturbingly plausible work of speculative fiction co authored by an award winning novelist and decorated Marine veteran and the former commander of NATO a legendary admiral who has spent much of his career strategically outmaneuvering America s most tenacious adversaries Written with a powerful blend of geopolitical sophistication and human empathy 2034 takes us inside the minds of a global cast of characters Americans Chinese Iranians Russians Indians as a series of arrogant miscalculations on all sides leads the world into an intensifying international storm In the end China and the United States will have paid a staggering cost one that forever alters the global balance of power Everything in 2034 is an imaginative extrapolation from present day facts on the ground combined with the authors years working at the highest and most classified levels of national security Sometimes it takes a brilliant work of fiction to illuminate the most dire of warnings 2034 is all too close at hand and this cautionary tale presents the reader a dark yet possible future that we must do all we can to avoid Sheepdogs Elliot
