Mergers in Higher Education Leon Cremonini,Saeed Paivandi,K.M. Joshi,2019-05-23 The merger is broadly understood as a fusion of two or more units into one The merger in higher education has received much attention by policy makers as well as individual institutions in many countries as a means to bring higher education reforms The merger of higher education institutions is a visible phenomenon in the recent past but each merger provides a distinctive instance of major strategic change Besides this each merger also shows a distinct set of circumstances actors and characteristics The aims of the mergers have been varied across the nations that include a reduction in fragmentation of institutions economies of scale enhanced efficiency enhanced quality etc Along with disapproval a great amount of literature surrounding the benefits of the merger has emerged over the period of time In spite of ample literature on mergers of higher education institutions there does not appear to be a clear set of financial efficiency or quality parameters to assess the success The majority of the discussions have been narratives In the available literature the mergers have been classified based on their participants stakeholders nature the strategy that drives them their motivation and or the resultant degree of absorption This book discusses the merger experiences and case study of different countries in terms of policies and practices Each country chapter in the above context narrates that in planning the mergers what have been the philosophical economic political legal and cultural implications How the factors such as institutional history geographical distance provincial tradition state regulations the presence of collective bargaining and pertinent financial matters shaped the process as well as the outcome of the mergers The idea of merger and its implementation including process at both government and institutional level have been discussed The outcome assessment also forms the part of the discussion

Strategic Mergers in Higher Education

Ricardo Azziz,Guilbert C. Hentschke,Lloyd A. Jacobs,Bonita C. Jacobs,2019-10-29 How proactive mergers can stabilize and enhance colleges and universities and ensure their future With the pool of high school graduates decreasing national and global competition increasing and the need to invest in new technologies and approaches growing many universities and small colleges alike are struggling not just to thrive but to survive In this challenging environment mergers and consolidations are often viewed as options of last resort Strategic Mergers in Higher Education however argues that college and university mergers are a legitimate and proactive strategic option to help ensure success maximize quality and service and yield the best return for faculty and students In this thoughtful book Ricardo Azziz and his coauthors including higher education leaders who have led successful consolidations address the many questions surrounding institutional mergers When they ask and why should a merger be considered How can leaders deal effectively with the many challenges and opposition that a merger will inevitably face What are the predictors of merger failure and success And how do we successfully address the postmerger cultural divide This thorough text demonstrates how mergers can dramatically accelerate the goals of postsecondary institutions The book is informed by an extensive review of published reports interviews with over thirty higher education leaders individual case studies and the experiences of the authors themselves Addressing numerous critical questions this practical guide is aimed at higher education leaders and their boards the campus leaders charged with executing transformative mergers and any policy makers interested in change management or the future of higher education Mergers in Higher Education Rómulo Pinheiro, Lars Geschwind, Timo

Aarrevaara, 2015-11-03 This book addresses the critical knowledge gaps of mergers involving higher education institutions It is based on a comparative research project spring 2013 spring 2015 investigating the phenomena of mergers involving higher education institutions across the Nordic countries Norway Sweden Finland and Denmark The study involved close to 30 scholars from the region and aimed at shedding critical light on and providing novel contributions around the following key aspects Conceptual and theoretical approaches strengths and limitations towards the study of the phenomena of mergers in higher education Historical developments leading to significant structural changes in the domestic higher education landscape and in turn how mergers have been used as a policy institutional mechanism to foster adaptation to a new external environment at the local national regional and international levels The complex dynamics inherent to merger processes by undertaking an in depth investigation of a series of selected case studies with a particular focus on the black box associated with the implementation process The implications of the findings as regards future policy and strategic endeavours theory development and future research agenda Responsibility of Higher Education Systems, 2020-06-29 The evolving societal political and economic landscape has led to increased demands on higher education institutions to make their contribution and benefits to society more visible and in many cases with fewer public resources This book contributes to the understanding of the responsibilities of Higher Education and the challenges posed to the production and circulation of knowledge It raises questions about the role of higher education in society its responsibility towards students and staff and regarding its intended impact The book brings together a range of topical papers and a diversity of perspectives scientific investigations of reputed scholars critical evidence based papers of third space professionals and policymakers perspectives on the daily practice and management of higher education institutions and systems The variety of both content and contributors elevates the richness of the book and its relevance for a large audience Contributors are Victor M H Borden Lex Borghans Bruno Broucker Hamish Coates Gwilym Croucher Lisa Davidson Mark Engberg Philipp Friedrich Martina Gaisch Solomon Gebreyohans Gebru Ton Kallenberg Kathi A Ketcheson Lu Liu Alfredo Marra Clare Milsom Kenneth Moore Roberto Moscati Marjolein Muskens Daniela N Meyer Attila Pausits Svetlana Shenderova Wafa Singh Chuanyi Wang Denyse Webbstock Gregory Wolniak and Jiale Yang See inside the book Reviews of National Policies for Education Education in Lithuania OECD, 2017-10-16 This report assesses Lithuania's policies and practices against best practice in education from across the OECD and other countries in the region It analyses its education system's major strengths and the challenges it faces from early childhood education and care to tertiary education Collaborative Thinking Sarah K.A.
