Michelle Wang, Cheryl Julia Lee, 2024-03-11 The Routledge Companion to Literature and Art explores the links between literature and visual art from classical ekphrasis through to contemporary experimental forms The collection's engagement with diverse literary and cultural artifacts offers a comprehensive survey of the vibrant interrelationships that currently inform literary studies and the arts Featuring four sections the first part provides an overview of theoretical approaches to art and literature from philosophy and aesthetics through to cognitive neuroscience Part two examines one of the most important intersections between text and image the workings of ekphrasis across poetry fiction drama comics life and travel writing and architectural treatises Parts three and four consider intermedial crossings from antiquity to the present The contributors examine the rich intermedial experiments that range from manuscript studies to infographics in graphic narratives illuminating the vibrant ways in which texts have intersected with illustration music dance architecture painting photography media installations and television Throughout this dynamic collection of 37 chapters the contributors evolve existing critical debates in innovative new directions The volume will be a critical resource for advanced undergraduate and graduate students as well as specialist scholars working in literary studies philosophy of art text and image studies and visual culture The Introduction and Chapters 10 14 and 37 of this book are freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution CC BY 4.0 license New Postcolonial British Genres Sarah Ilott, 2015-09-01 This study analyses four new genres of literature and film that have evolved to accommodate and negotiate the changing face of postcolonial Britain since 1990 British Muslim Bildungsromane gothic tales of postcolonial England the subcultural urban novel and multicultural British comedy Transgender History & Geography: Crossdressing in Context Bolich, Ph. D. G. G. Bolich, 2007-09-28 The third in a landmark five volume study of transgender realities with a focus on crossdressing this fascinating volume offers a tour through history and around the world Within these pages are found the most famous crossdressers of history and information as to what it means to be a transgender person in the various countries of the world today Gender and Memory in the Postmillennial Novels of Almudena Grandes Lorraine Ryan, 2021-04-22 Almudena Grandes is one of Spain's foremost women's writers having sold over 1.1 million copies of her episodios de una guerra interminable her six volume series that ranges from the Spanish Civil War to the democratic period the myriad prizes awarded to her 18 in total confirm her pre-eminence This book situates Grandes's novels within gendered philosophical and mnemonic theoretical concepts that illuminate hidden dimensions of her much studied work Lorraine Ryan considers and expands on existing critical work on Grandes's oeuvre proposing new avenues of interpretation and understanding She seeks to debunk the arguments of those who portray Grandes as the proponent of a sectarian eminently biased Republican memory by analysing the wide variety of gender and perpetrator memories that proliferate in her work The intersection of perpetrator memory with masculinity ecocriticism medical ethics and the child s perspectives confirms Grandes nuanced engagement with Spanish memory culture Departing from a philosophical basis Ryan reconfigures the Republican victim in the novels as a vulnerable subject who attempts to flourish thus refuting the current critical opinion of the victim as overly empowered The new perspectives produced in this monograph do not aim to suggest that Grandes is an advocate of perpetrator memory rather it suggests that Grandes is committed to a more pluralistic idea of memory culture whereby her novels generate understanding of multiple victim perpetrator and gender memories an analysis that produces new and meaningful engagements with these novels Thus Ryan contends that Grandes s historical novels are infinitely more complex and nuanced than heretofore conceived

The Crisis of Democratic Capitalism Martin Wolf, 2023-02-02 From the author of The Shifts and the Shocks and one of the most influential writers on economics a reckoning with how and why the relationship between democracy and capitalism is coming undone We are living in an age when economic failings have shaken faith in global capitalism Political failings have undermined trust in liberal democracy and in the very notion of truth The ties that ought to bind open markets to free and fair elections are being strained and rejected even in democracy s notional heartlands Around the world democratic capitalism which depends on the determined separation of power from wealth is in crisis Some now argue that capitalism is better without democracy others that democracy is better without capitalism This book is a forceful rejoinder to both views It analyses how the marriage between capitalism and democracy has become so fraught and yet insists that a divorce would be an almost unimaginable calamity Martin Wolf one of the wisest public voices on global affairs argues that for all its recent failings slowing growth increasing inequality widespread popular disillusion democratic capitalism though inherently fragile remains the best system we know for human flourishing Capitalism and democracy are complementary opposites they need each other if either is to thrive Wolf s superb exploration of their marriage shows us how citizenship and a shared faith in the common good are not romantic slogans but the essential foundation of our economic and political freedom

Dreadful Desires Charlie Yi Zhang, 2022-02-07 In Dreadful Desires Charlie Yi Zhang examines how the Chinese state deploys affective notions of love to regulate the population and secure China s place in the global economy Zhang shows how the state frames love as a set of desires that encompass heteronormative intimacy familial and communal attachment upward mobility and private property ownership These desires as circulated in performance in the nationalistic ceremony same sex romantic fan fiction the wildly popular reality television dating show If You Are the One and the cult of patriarchal personality around Xi Jinping are explicitly based in oppressive systems of gender class and sexuality Zhang contends that such desires connect love to economic survival and gender normativity in ways that underwrite Chinese neoliberalism at the expense of individual flourishing By outlining how state framed forms of love create desires that cannot be fulfilled Zhang places China at the forefront of using affective attachments to nation leader and family in the global shifts toward exploitation and authoritarianism
