through digital communication platforms Globalization, Digitization, Access and Preservation of Cultural Heritage
Herbert K. Achleitner,Alexander Georgiev Dimchev,2007 International Student Visibility Catherine Gomes,2024-10-29
This book narrates the ubiquitous relationship that international students have with their destination community asking why students are not part of these communities despite being visible actors not only as students but as neighbours and as workers in the service industries and the gig economy This book examines international students living and working in Australia through a cultural and communications lens bringing together almost a decade of interviews and online surveys It provides insight into their transnational identities and social and cultural practices in real world and digital spaces Despite being an integral part of the ethnographic landscape of the places they occupy this book argues that international students are often not an integrated part of the wider community To remedy this international students have found ways to explore and communicate their experiences as transient migrants in Australia This book thus goes beyond canonical academic commentary on the international student experience which often views them as vulnerable migrants to suggest that students create a sense of community and belonging while providing the wider Australian public insights into the international student experience through the creative arts This book will appeal to scholars upper level students and researchers with interests in international and comparative education sociology of education urban education cultural studies migration studies and youth studies Perspectives ,2003 Global Student Mobility in the Asia Pacific Peter Kell,Gillian Vogl,2010 Over 2 7m students study in a country other than their own Most of those students come from the Asia Pacific region and undertake study in universities in the developed world This trend is predicted to grow exponentially but features many dilemmas In the post 9 11 global environment international students experience hostility and harassment as well as ambivalence about their value to the academy Some live an uncertain life of poverty and alienation Many also struggle to come to terms with living and studying in a foreign land where there are concerns about international students eroding academic standards having poor English language proficiency and being unable to reintegrate and contribute to their new communities But some also seek to make new homes in their host countries The contributions in this book explore the complex and diverse aspects of transnational education and propose some pragmatic approaches to these dilemmas These contributions explore new ways of looking at the phenomena of international students their social and cultural needs as well as the challenges for teaching and learning research supervision and English language in the academy The book presents case studies and documents initiatives that are positive responses to the dilemmas of global student mobility Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015 (Volume 4) Union Of International Associations,Union of International Associations,2014-09-17 The Yearbook of International Organizations provides the most extensive coverage of non profit international organizations currently available Detailed profiles of international non governmental and intergovernmental organizations IGO collected and documented by the Union of International Associations can be found here In addition to the history aims and activities of international organizations with their events publications and contact details the volumes of the Yearbook include networks between associations biographies of key people involved and extensive statistical data Providing both an international organizations and research bibliography Volume 4 cites over 46 000 publications and information resources supplied by international organizations and provides nearly 18 000 research citations under 40 subject headings This volume also includes a research bibliography on international organizations and transnational associations The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2009

Footnotes ,2003 Global Digital Cultures Aswin Punathambekar,Sriram Mohan,2019-06-06 Digital media histories are part of a global network and South Asia is a key nexus in shaping the trajectory of digital media in the twenty first century Digital platforms like Facebook WhatsApp and others are deeply embedded in the daily lives of millions of people around the world shaping how people engage with others as kin as citizens and as consumers Moving away from Anglo American and strictly national frameworks the essays in this book explore the intersections of local national regional and global forces that shape contemporary digital culture s in regions like South Asia the rise of digital and mobile media technologies the ongoing transformation of established media industries and emergent forms of digital media practice and use that are reconfiguring sociocultural political and economic terrains across the Indian subcontinent From massive state driven digital identity projects and YouTube censorship to Tinder and dating culture from Twitter and primetime television to Facebook and political rumors Global Digital Cultures focuses on enduring concerns of representation identity and power while grappling with algorithmic curation and data driven processes of production circulation and consumption
