Larry Lester, 2006-08-30 In 1924 after the Hilldale Giants captured the league crown in the new Eastern Colored League and the Kansas City Monarchs won out in the four year old Negro National League, the two teams met in a best of nine series for the world championship. But a 13 inning tie in Game 4 and alternating wins throughout would force a tenth and deciding game, making it the longest World Series black or white in the modern era. This heavily illustrated volume provides a comprehensive account of the first championship series played between teams from two all black professional leagues. It provides commentary, records and full statistics for each club's regular season performance along with biographical profiles of the players.
