Emmy Award Winning Nighttime Television Shows, 1948-2004 Wesley Hyatt, 2015-09-11 Since the early days of television well before most households had a set the Academy of Television Arts and Sciences has been handing out honors for the industry's best efforts. Now fans can read about their favorites and perhaps rediscover some forgotten pleasures in this reference to prime time and nighttime Emmy winners. Beginning with the heated charade contest known as Pantomime Quiz which won Most Popular Program of 1948 in the first Emmy Awards ceremony held in 1949 each of more than 100 winning shows gets star treatment with an entry that includes the year of award or awards air times hosts guests casts and a full discussion of the show's history and run. Many of the entries include original interviews with cast or crew members. With such rich information each show's entry constitutes a chapter in the history of television through the story of the show and the people who made it happen. The best of variety drama game shows comedies adventures and many more categories are featured. An appendix offers interesting facts and figures and ranks shows according to such statistics as longest run longest delay from debut to win and most Emmys won.

Television Introductions

Vincent Terrace, 2013-11-07

Since the beginning of network television many shows have been preceded by an announcement or theme song that served various purposes. In the 1950s and 60s it was common for announcers to declare that a program had been brought to you by a sponsor who paid for the privilege of introducing a show. Other programs such as The Twilight Zone Star Trek and The Odd Couple provided a brief encapsulation of the show's subject matter a practice that has continued for recent shows like Alias Battlestar Galactica Person of Interest and the various editions of Law Order. In Television Introductions Narrated TV Program Openings since 1949 Vincent Terrace has assembled openings for more than nine hundred television shows from the past seven decades. The only documented history of narrated television program introductions this volume is arranged by type of programming such as comedy drama Western game show soap opera and children's show. In addition to quoting the opening material entries provide information about each show's network history and years of broadcast. Many entries include descriptions of the show the names of announcers and a list of main cast members as well as a sponsor pitch exactly as spoken. Openings for programs with multiple introductions like The Adventures of Ozzie and Harriet and Charlie's Angels are also included. For programs that featured new guest stars every episode such as game shows and variety programs Terrace has selected a representative introduction. In addition to the theme song credits found in the main text there are also appendixes of theme songs and their composers and or singers as well as a listing of commercial releases on DVD VHS CD and LP of shows and their soundtracks. A comprehensive resource for researchers and pop culture aficionados alike. Television Introductions provides a fascinating look at this neglected part of TV history.
