

FINANCIAL AID FOR COLLEGE

Don't panic about those scary high costs of attendance you see posted on college websites. Lots of students actually pay through grants, scholarships and other "free" funds by the time all is said and done. To make sure your family gets its fair share of financial aid, follow these very easy steps.

1. ESTABLISH A PLAN

☐ HAVE FAMILY MEETING

There's only so far you can go to help determine the amount of money you'll need to finance your child's education. Sit down with all of your family and get everyone's thoughts on what you can contribute to the cost. If you have a large family, your other costs, such as child care, may be significant. Write down each family member's contribution to the total plan.

☐ FIND A FINANCIAL "SAFETY NET"

Look for ways to help your child's college where you'll be able to help. Is a relative, friend or aunt or uncle already paying for a child's education? Can you help with books or other college expenses? Will a friend or family member be able to help with transportation or other expenses?

☐ SORT OUT A BUDGET PLAN

Help to make sure you have a realistic budget plan. Write down all of the costs you'll need to pay for your child's education. Then, write down all of the money you'll have available.

2. MAKE A LIST OF SCHOOLS

☐ COMPARING THE COSTS

Even if you don't expect to pay for all of the costs, you'll need to know the total cost of each school. Look for the "net cost" of each school. This is the total cost of the school minus the amount of financial aid you'll receive.

☐ CHECK WHAT TO LOOK FOR

When you're looking at schools, look for the total cost of attendance. This includes tuition, room and board, books, transportation, and other expenses. Look for the amount of financial aid you'll receive. This is the total cost of the school minus the amount of financial aid you'll receive. Look for the amount of financial aid you'll receive. This is the total cost of the school minus the amount of financial aid you'll receive.

☐ MAKE THE CHOICE

After you've compared all of the schools, you'll need to choose the one that's best for your child. Look for the total cost of the school. Look for the amount of financial aid you'll receive. Look for the amount of financial aid you'll receive. This is the total cost of the school minus the amount of financial aid you'll receive.

3. APPLY FOR FINANCIAL AID

☐ CHECK YOUR RECORD

A good record of your academic achievement is the key to getting financial aid. Look for the amount of financial aid you'll receive. This is the total cost of the school minus the amount of financial aid you'll receive. Look for the amount of financial aid you'll receive. This is the total cost of the school minus the amount of financial aid you'll receive.

☐ LOOK FOR THE BEST DEAL

Colleges 1997 Tom Meltzer, John Katzman, Edward T. Custard, 1996-07-30 When it first appeared USA Today called this book the guide that doesn't follow a textbook approach to college life. The Best 310 Colleges is based on The Princeton Review's student surveys, the largest campus surveys in the nation. More than 59,000 students answer questions on everything from academics to campus life. Topics include the quality of teaching, dorms, and dining hall fare; campus politics, left or right and conservative or liberal; whether the student body is diverse or homogeneous, tolerant or intolerant of race, class, relations, and of gay students; and high or low in its use of beer, liquor, and marijuana. In fact, this book has caused schools across the country to change their food, campuses, and drinking policies. Also included is information concerning admission and financial aid policies, student body demographics, average recentered SAT scores, and What's Hot, What's Not, as well as the Counselor O-Matic, an easy-to-use, highly unscientific guide to your chances of getting into each of the top 310 colleges by calculating your desirability rating and comparing it to each school's selectivity rating. Here's a sampling of what students have to say: "This school is filled with wealthy, well-dressed egomaniacs who are about as socially conscious as Marie Antoinette. I'm premed, and there's no place I would rather be. The academics are a killer, no joke, but for those few who survive, the world is their oyster. If you're not Caucasian, the adjustment here is tremendous. Since this is a Jesuit institution, not all viewpoints get expressed particularly liberal ones about gays and premarital sex You have to be smart about where you go at night The food here is really bad it's either bland or sickening You're lucky if they don't screw up the bread Socially the surrounding area is so dead that the Denny's closes at night Girls over 5'8" watch out for some reason guys here have munchkin blood in them or something
