GOVERNMENT READING COMPREHENSION

OPEN & CLOSED PRIMARIES

A preview of a reading comprehension article titled "Open and Closed Primaries". The preview shows the first few paragraphs of the article, which discusses the differences between open and closed primaries in the context of the 2016 presidential election. It highlights that open primaries allow anyone to vote, while closed primaries are restricted to registered party members. The preview also mentions the influence of third-party candidates and the impact of primaries on the general election. A small image of a campaign sign is visible on the right side of the preview.
