Dear Sister Nancy

I am writing this letter as a request for reference from Ms. Natalie Swan for the position of a registered Sr.Nurse at your esteemed hospital. Natalie worked under me for a period of eight years rising through the ranks and holding the position of Sr.Nurse- Women and Childcare, before she left the hospital.

Natalie has several merits that will add to the hospitals existing reputation. She is a skilled nursed, is consistent in her performance, is enthusiastic, efficient and responsible and in general cares for others. She had distinguished herself for providing safe and hygienic nursing to all our patients and has only three incidents reported against her in her eight year tenure. She has moreover always managed to maintain a professional relationship with all her colleagues and has a spic and span attendance record, having won rewards in two years for her attendance.

If her contribution in her last job can be considered as evidence, then I am sure that she will outshine herself at St.Loise given the opportunity she will find there that was absent here.

for a job      Cases in Nursing Management Joan M. Ganong, Warren L. Ganong, 1979      Primary Care Christopher Aquirre, 2023-06-05 A nursing reference letter is a type of composed correspondence that affirms a medical caretaker's abilities, capabilities, demeanor, and experience. This letter is normally composed by a previous manager, partner, or instructor. It shows that the nursing candidate is excellent to work with and did a good job. In addition, it informs the person receiving the letter of the reasons why they ought to hire the candidate and provides examples of how they contributed to the success of previous positions. A nurse reference letter may be required for admission to a master's program if you want to continue your education. Usually, this kind of letter should be written by a former teacher. However, you can get a reference from any coworker or employee. These kinds of letters will zero in on favoring the medical attendant's instructive foundation and utilization of basic abilities acquired in their undergrad program      Nursing Reference for Computer Literature Dorothy B.
