Dawn of the Neo-Modern: Art, Humanism and the Meme Alan Peter Garfoot, 2010-02-19 A detailed and extensive work covering widely the nature of consciousness mind control and the dynamics of freedom Art Inspiration Aspiration Education Achievement and the underclass Also touched is Ancient Greek metaphysics the global unification of ideology and Humanism Science faith and Post Humanism Memetics as a paradigm Hyperspatial Physics but most importantly the production of a new clean free energy social superstructure For the keen or enquiring intellectual this is a must read A Philosophy of Communication of Social Media Influencer Marketing Kati E. Sudnick, 2023-11-28 Social media influencer marketing emerged in Web 2.0 as a new form of celebrity endorsement in which the Internet famous create word of mouth marketing for brands and organizations on their personal social media pages blurring the line between organic and sponsored content for their followers This book explores social media influencer marketing through the lens of philosophy of communication with a praxis centered approach Kati E Sudnick utilizes a multitude of theoretical touchstones including Christopher Lasch's narcissistic culture Marshall McLuhan's global village Daniel Boorstin's human pseudo event Jacques Ellul's propaganda and the interplay between charismatic leadership and parasocial relationships in order to consider consequences surrounding Hannah Arendt's social condition which appears in hyper form within social media influencer marketing as a major integrated marketing communication tool Sudnick applies these concepts to three major case studies surrounding Audible BetterHelp and Fyre Festival drawing implications and conclusions for this integrated marketing communication tactic in an era entrenched within the banality of the social Ultimately the author argues for a more aware and conscientious public when it comes to engaging with influencers online Scholars of communication philosophy and media studies will find this book of particular interest Protest: Analysing Current Trends Matthew Johnson, Samid Suliman, 2016-03-22 The politics of the twenty first century is marked by dissent tumult and calls for radical change whether through food riots anti war protests anti government tirades anti blasphemy marches anti austerity demonstrations anti authoritarian movements and anti capitalist occupations Interestingly contemporary political protests are borne of both the Right and Left and are staged in both the Global North and South Globally different instances of protest have drawn attention to the deep fissures which challenge the idea of globalisation as a force for peace Given the diversity of these protests it is necessary to examine the particular nature of grievances the sort of change which is sought and the extent to which localised protest can have global implications The contributions in this book draw on the theoretical work of Hardt and Negri David Graeber and Judith Butler among others in order to explore the nature of hegemony the Occupy movement the Arab Spring the responses of authorities to protest and emotion and public performance in and representation of protest The book concludes with David Graeber's reply to reviews of his recent The Democracy Project: A History, A Crisis, A Movement This book was published as a special issue of Global Discourse The Second Coming Franco Berardi, 2019-07-12 We have entered the gateway to the apocalypse This theological concept is the best metaphor to describe the world in which we are already living Chaos is all around us political folly economical delirium ecological catastrophe intellectual cynicism technological simulation of life This is what Franco Bifo Berardi suggests in this wry dark disconcerting but also brilliant and invigorating journey through the main events that we have witnessed in recent years One century after the Communist revolution the very idea that the world could be changed for the better seems dead once and for all Every time that a new change occurs nowadays it seems to be a change for the worse But the fact that nothing can save us any more shouldn't be seen as a form of fatality or a reason for surrender On the contrary if our world is dead then the space is open for another to appear a world where apocalypse can shake us out of our zombie like contemporary existence The second coming of Communism will have nothing to do with 1917 Apocalypse has to be conceived of as a metaphor and Communism is a metaphor too the metaphor of the possible deployment of the potentials of the mind
