Huntsberger,1989 Common Core State Standards for Mathematics ,2012 Transform Your Math Class Using Asset-Based Teaching for Grades 6-12 Michael D. Steele,Joleigh Honey,2024-07-19 Foster a love of mathematics by creating a more inclusive and empowering learning environment through asset based teaching An asset based perspective on math education means starting with what students already know instead of focusing on what's missing This approach elevates student thinking and reasoning skills In this way educators acknowledge that all students bring prior experiences strengths talents and resources to the learning process and can contribute meaningfully in an authentic learning environment Transform Your Math Class Using Asset Based Teaching for Grades 6-12 provides insight into asset based perspectives in mathematics education to create an environment where all students feel valued and capable of being doers of mathematics In the book Michael Steele and Joleigh Honey highlight the importance of using language instructional routines and systemic structure that positively impact student engagement their math identity and ultimately their outcomes Providing a wealth of knowledge and practical strategies that can be used to transform math classrooms into inclusive supportive and empowering learning environments this book Introduces an asset based perspective that focuses on students strengths assets and potential to learn mathematics Includes a variety of frameworks and tools that teachers can use to build and grow their sense of asset based perspectives Offers strategies for promoting a growth mindset in mathematics encouraging productive

struggle in math and promoting equitable math instruction Supports teachers in reflecting on their decisions self awareness and self management Includes a companion online study guide to support teachers individually or as part of a professional learning community Adopting asset based perspectives is about movement over time not about flipping a switch This book paves the path for an asset based journey that ultimately helps to transform our math classrooms and advance all students learning and development Teacher Agency in the Process of State Mandated Reform Kyle C. Ruggles,2009 Under No Child Left Behind NCLB federally funded schools and Local Educational Agencies LEAs that do not meet Adequate Yearly Progress A YP criteria for two consecutive years are designated Program Improvement PI mandating participation in school reform interventions In February 2008 the California Department of Education CDE released a corrective action plan mandate requiring all LEAs or school districts in Year 3 of PI to participate in intensive moderate light or other levels of technical support that includes participation in the District Assistance and Intervention Team DAIT process The DAIT process brings outside consultants and district office administrators into schools and classrooms for regular walkthroughs and assessments of improvement plan implementation Yet little is known about how these state mandates influence teachers instructional practices and decision making power or agency This study explores teachers perceptions of the DAIT process and how agency is influenced in an urban fringe pre kindergarten through grade 8 PI school district in California that volunteered to pilot the DAIT process during the 2006 2009 school years The socio cultural theory of learning Gallucci 2003 and the principal agent theory Ferris 1992 guide the analysis of this embedded and longitudinal multi case study of three middle schools and the district office within the PI school district Rich thick qualitative descriptions from 24 teachers and five district office administrators engaged in state mandated reform emerge from the single case and cross case analyses Teachers perceive the DAIT feedback as vague and lacking in teacher involvement in classroom visitations which led to teachers viewing the process as superficial Yet teachers also considered the DAIT process as beneficial in increasing teacher team reflection and collaboration around a singular common instructional focus of reading comprehension which seemed to be positively associated with agency A variance of teacher agency levels was found to depend upon school context and how teachers perceived themselves while balancing the costs and benefits from DAIT feedback Findings also reveal that the DAIT process may have compromised teacher agency due to the lack of teacher participation and involvement in the development of the process potentially eroding teachers sense of professionalism Planning & Changing ,2016 State Education Journal Index and Educators' Guide to Periodicals Research Strategies ,2003 An index of state education journals
